Calling All Linguistic Mavericks: Present Your Passport to Bilingual Brilliance!

We trust this correspondence finds you in good spirits. Plans are well underway for the 32nd Annual Two-Way Bilingual Immersion Conference, slated to take place in Riverside, CA from June 24-26, 2024. We're thrilled to extend an invitation to proficient teachers and administrators from Dual Language programs nationwide to share their wealth of knowledge.

We're on the lookout for presentations covering a spectrum of topics, including:

- Optimal practices in Dual Language programs.
- Engaging curriculum modules and student projects.
- Utilization of technology to bolster L1 and L2 development.
- Effective strategies to foster student motivation toward bilingualism and biliteracy.

This conference aims to bolster TWBI/DLI educators in their endeavors to effectively implement these programs within their student communities and schools at large. Presentations pertaining to Spanish, Vietnamese, Hmong, Mandarin, Korean, and other language programs are of particular interest to us.

Why Present?

Presenters in our breakout sessions play a pivotal role in disseminating knowledge and exemplary practices. To express our gratitude for your dedication and effort, we extend a $150 discount to lead presenters. Whether you're a seasoned presenter or contemplating presenting for the first time in 2024, we warmly welcome your participation.

Co-Presenters Welcome:

Feel free to enlist the assistance of one or two co-presenters. While their registration fees must be paid in full, they will be duly acknowledged and credited in our conference app and program.

Application Details:

- Open to experienced teachers or administrators in TWBI/DLI programs and Gold or above sponsors.

- Application deadline: Friday, March 29th, 2024.
- Presenters are required to align with the Guiding Principles of Dual Language Education.
- Lead presenters qualify for a $150 discount on conference registration.
- Lead presenters presenting only on the day of their session receive a complimentary 1-day pass.
- Gold and above sponsors are welcome to apply, however, they are not remunerated.

Submit Your Proposal:

All proposals must be submitted online by Friday, March 29th. Please be advised that once our presenter quota is met, the submission link will be closed. Don't delay – submit your application promptly!

For any proposal-related inquiries, please reach out to registration@atdle.org. We eagerly anticipate the opportunity to collaborate with you at the 32nd Annual TWBI Summer Conference in Riverside this June. Your invaluable contributions are certain to enhance the conference experience for all attendees.

Best Regards,
ATDLE
