Subject: Updates to Grades 3-5 and Secondary Grading Guidelines

MISD Board of Trustees:

Agenda Item – 7C

Background Information

The Teaching and Learning Department is requesting board consent to update the district's current grading guidelines. The proposed revisions are in red text on the following documents. These revisions are intended to ensure alignment with current instructional practices, state requirements, and district goals while supporting consistency across campuses. Approval of these updates will allow the district to implement the revised grading guidelines for the upcoming school year.
