Other

Effective 8/17/26, the start date of the Fall Term, the non-resident tuition rate (sometimes referred to as out-of-state tuition, and includes international students) will be lowered to match the resident tuition rate (commonly referred to as in-state rate).

Non-residents will still be coded differently by admissions for reporting purposes, but their tuition rate will be equal to Nebraska residents.

This decision follows other state initiatives to encourage more individuals to move to Nebraska for educational and work force purposes.
