The Scholastic Book Fair will be held for one week in the RCMS library. Students will get to come down and make purchases during their language arts classes and any other free time they might have during the school day. The Book Fair will also be open one night after school for parents and caregivers to come shop with their students.

Profits will be used to purchase books for the following groups:

- Students unable to make purchases for themselves
- Small book groups for classrooms
- Reading rewards for Caught Ya Ticket winners
- Reading rewards for the 20 Book Reading Challenge
- RCMS library (both for the collection and to be used as rewards)
