BE IT RESOLVED that the Centreville Board of Education approve the consent agenda as presented.

The BOE unanimously approved this motion by voice vote.

Superintendent's Report

District

- Dennis Kirby, elementary principal, reported on numerous events that have taken place since school started: fall testing, WIN meetings and data review, PD day, and Bulldog Bootcamp. Upcoming events: Fair Day, WWMT weather visit, PAC's Bulldog Boogie, food service farmer's market, and Sturgis Academy of Martial Arts visit.
- Matt Henningsen, jr/sr principal, gave his first building report: NWEA testing, CTE mobile lab visit, Link Crew successes, PD day, College Access Champion site, and upcoming progress reports at the five-week mark.
- Jill Peterson, athletic director, reported: 213 athletes competing, new cheer coach with 18 varsity and 24 jr high athletes, football in week four, volleyball dealing with early-season injuries, tailgate had 27 stations, cross country has 30 runners, Will Hulin broke the XC school record twice in three days. Tim Hall would like to know the historical numbers surrounding senior athletes, as it appears to be decreasing. Jill will put together a report.
- Supt Brady: Feedback on first PD day has been positive; Food Club will offer its first meal kit; Barb Lester was recognized for 55 years of service to the district.
