

FUNDING PROPOSALS, GRANTS AND SPECIAL PROJECTS

The initiation of proposals which request special funds to enhance the educational opportunities of the Nye County School District shall be referred by the proper personnel to the Superintendent. The proposal will include all pertinent and/or supporting information (i.e., how the grant enhances our current programs, the long-term impact of the grant, etc.).

When special fund programs are approved by the Board of Trustees and become operational, the Finance Department/Grant Department shall establish effective procedures for the fiscal administration of such programs. The responsibility for compliance with the stipulations and conditions of the grant in regard to the use of grant funds shall rest with the designated head of the project.

Grant reimbursements shall be submitted monthly to the granting agency in accordance with their guidelines.
