Background Information:

Jenn Hoelscher is being recognized by the Temple Rotary Club as the Rotary Educators of the Month for May for her outstanding service to Belton ISD. Jenn serves as a Special Education teacher at Sparta Elementary. Jenn is in her 22nd year in education, all being with Belton ISD.

Kori Fitzner, Instructional Coach at Sparta Elementary, stated the following about Jenn:

For over 20 years, Jenn has been a cornerstone of the Sparta community, and her transition this year into the Special Education Resource & Inclusion role has been nothing short of inspiring. She pours her heart into every student on her caseload, working tirelessly to ensure they feel seen, supported, and championed.

Jenn is a true bridge-builder, collaborating beautifully with her fellow teachers and forming deep, trusting bonds with families to create a solid foundation for every child to thrive. Her dedication doesn't stop at the classroom door; she is always diving into new research and partnering with district specialists, constantly seeking out fresh, creative ways to unlock her students' potential. Jenn's blend of seasoned expertise and a lifelong learner's spirit makes her a truly one-of-a-kind educator who changes lives every single day.
