

Nunamiut School
Highlighted School Report
September 2025

Principal Shannon Oglesby

Distinguished Students

Ethel Gordon was honored in May of 2025 for her strong participation in Ivalu (Inupiaq Language Education) which shows her commitment to learning the Inupiaq Language.

Mrs. Kakinya would like to recognize her 3 year old student, Alasuk (Caleb), who has been attending like a champ with great attendance. He is the only 3 year old who is attending currently and he is meshing well with the students who are a little older.

Mrs. Neal would like to recognize Carroll Ahgook, who is a first grader who excelled in her reading over the summer. When she left kindergarten, she was sounding out basic CVC words and now she is reading blended words with ease. She loves to draw and share her thoughts. She's a friend to everyone and eager to learn more.

Ms. Delk would like to recognize Titus Hopson who is a 5th grader. He is very helpful in the classroom and participates in discussions. He is attending school on a consistent basis and always completes his assignments. He is an upstanding member of the classroom and school.

Mrs. Duterte recognizes Malakai Morry who is a 6th grader from her morning group. He is studious with his work and she also recognizes him for being a leader. When other students become discourteous, he will signal for them to act more appropriately.

Ethel Gordon is in 4th grade and is excelling in her math skills. Ethel is a very responsible young lady and does not give up when the task gets difficult.

Jack Williamson is a 5th grade student who has stepped up his classroom participation and is very interested in classroom tools. He is excited about his learning progress.

Distinguished Staff

Mrs. Neal and Ms. Becker were nominated for NSBSD Distinguished Teacher at the end of last year. Mrs. Neal was the Teacher of the year for Nunamiut School and both are superstars in our school.

Highlights:

Ms. Tracy Mulvenon spent two weeks on the Nunamiut School Campus and assisted the staff in many ways. A highlight of her stay in Anaktuvuk Pass was the 2025-26 school year kickoff Zoom for the Tumitchiat Sivunmun Program with high school students across the slope on Friday, August 22nd, 2025.

Upcoming Events:

Susan Hope will be in Anaktuvuk Pass to lead the Cultural Inservice for the school and community. She will work with the students during the day and will provide a sewing class for the community in the evenings; September 8-12, and will wrap up her stay in AKP with a cultural inservice on Saturday, September 13th, to provide the teachers with a sewing class.

Athletes are on the move:

The cross country team will be traveling during the month of September to the following locations:

September 6th for the meet in Palmer

September 19th for the Whaler Invitational in Barrow

September 24th for the Regional Championship in Barrow (Hosted by Kali)

The team will wrap up their Cross Country Track season on October 4th at the State Championship in Palmer.

Ms. Oglesby recognizes Eileen Panigeo for her daily participation with the morning meeting dances and pledges. Eileen is noted to have a warm welcoming demeanor with the children as they begin their days. Throughout the day, Eileen can be seen smiling and lifting the spirits of her fellow classmates.
