

Superintendents Advisory

ANW Special Education Interlocal

March 3, 2026

- First Stop Health.
 - Brought to ANW by our insurance broker, USI.
 - Was brought to us as a potential insurance opportunity for our Support staff, Provides virtual primary care, virtual urgent care and virtual mental health services.
 - Does not cover specialists or prescriptions. 20$ per month. Applies to both the employee and everyone in their household. Premiums may be refunded based on degree of use.
 - No co-pay.
- Paras at Inservice-when do Supts want paras at inservice opportunities for the 26-27 school year?
 - Dates and schedules can shift.
 - Paras-when districts go over the basic operations of their districts and their building faculty meetings. Recess duty, how lunch works? Support staff need this information. ANW will send out a spreadsheet to all Supts.
- Para Orientation focus-literacy
 - 3 day orientation for all support staff-The Master Teacher coursework gets paras highly qualified for title buildings.
 - Training on what it looks like to help students with specific types of disabilities.
 - Assignment based.
 - ANW has offered the CPI de-escalation content in the past.
- Para/Support Staff Infnitec Badge 2026
 - Behavior Tech Badge Flyer
- Discussion regarding licensing of special education teachers and how challenging it can be to require 4th grade sped licensure and above to get a masters degree.
- KASEA Conference-changes to file review
 - Cohorts going away but will remain for Federal Fiscal File Review
 - A small sample of questions for IDEA file review
 - Will take effect immediately
 - Discussion regarding possible openings for certified staff members interlocal wide
- Discussion of a former sports official who is taking kids to movies, out to coffee, etc. Reportedly messaging students.

USD #101 - Scott Palser - present in person
USD #256 - Kim Ensminger - present in person
USD #257 - Stacey Fager - present in person
USD #258 - Amber Wheeler - present virtually
USD #366 - Stephanie Splechter - present virtually
USD #387 - Jason Wheeler - present in person
USD #413 - Matt Koester - present in person
USD #479 - Shane Walter - present virtually