Rationale Comment(s)

It has been further determined that: (At least one of the following must be checked.)

- ☐ Your child's continued presence at school poses a threat to school safety, for reasons which may include, but not be limited to, one or more of the following, psychological harm is likely to be caused to other students due to the egregious nature of your child's conduct (i.e., physical violent, threat) and/or the history or record of your child's past conduct indicates that your child is likely to engage in similar conduct in the future.
- ☐ Your child's continued presence at school poses a disruption to other students' learning opportunities for reasons which may include, but not limited to, one or more of the following, psychological harm is likely to be caused to the other students due to the egregious nature of your child's conduct (i.e., physical violence, threat); the history or record of your child's past conduct indicates that your child is likely to engage in similar conduct in the future; and/or the presence of your child at school will foster a culture that such conduct at school is acceptable or tolerated.

During the period of suspension, your child may not be present at school, on grounds owned or controlled by the School District or at any School District activity. Failure to comply with this directive constitutes a trespass and will be dealt with accordingly.

Upon returning to school, your child will be given an opportunity to make up work missed during the suspension for equivalent academic credit.

To discuss this matter, you may contact Ms. Cathy Finley. Alternatively, you have the right to have the suspension reviewed by the Board of Education or a hearing officer acting on the Board's behalf. To schedule a hearing, please send a written request within ten (10) calendar days to the Due Process Hearings Officer, Ms. Cathy Finley, at cathy.finley@harlem122.org, or you may call Ms. Finley directly at 815 (209) 5762.
