CRIMINAL HISTORY
RECORD CHECK —
APPLICANTS

Under authority of the Education Code, the District shall obtain the criminal history record for each applicant for employment with the District who, in the opinion of the District, is a serious candidate and who may be offered a position.

The District may obtain the information from any law enforcement agency or other background agency, including, but not limited to, a police department, the Department of Public Safety, or the Texas Department of Corrections.

The District shall not issue any applicant a written contract of employment until it has obtained a criminal history record and reviewed it under the guidelines of this policy.

For the purposes of this policy, "conviction" shall include probation, deferred adjudication, a finding of guilt, or acceptance by the court of a plea of guilty or nolo contendere.

A person shall not be denied employment solely on the basis of the deferred adjudication or arrest. Rather, the underlying facts that led to the arrest or deferred adjudication shall be examined prior to any recommendation to employ.

CONFIDENTIALITY
REQUIREMENT

Criminal history information is privileged and for the use of the District and the State Board for Educator Certification. No District employee shall release or disclose such information to a person other than the applicant, the legal review committee, or the Superintendent or designee, under penalty of law and/or discharge.

CRIMINAL HISTORY
RESTRICTIONS

If a person has been charged with a criminal offense that has been dismissed through deferred adjudication, that person shall be considered for employment with the District except when the charge was for criminal homicide, capital murder; attempted murder; murder; voluntary manslaughter; involuntary manslaughter; unlawful transport, false imprisonment, trafficking of persons, improper relationship between educator and student, public lewdness involving a child or student, indecent exposure with a child or student, prohibited sexual conduct, sexual assault, rape, child abuse, abandoning or endangering a child, sale or purchase of a child, arson, inde-elderly, or a person with a disability; kidnapping; aggravated kidnapping; aggravated sexual assault of a child; robbery, aggravated robbery; prostitution or solicitation of prostitution, child pornography, sexual solicitation of a child; obscenity; any felony where a deadly weapon was used or exhibited; any felony related to the manufacture, delivery, or possession of marijuana, a controlled substance, or dangerous drug; or any other crime that adversely affects the mission of the District.

MORAL TURPITUDE

No one convicted of a felony or any misdemeanor involving moral turpitude shall be considered for employment in the District. Moral turpitude is an act of baseness, vileness, or depravity in the private or social duties outside the accepted standards of decency that shocks the conscience of an ordinary person.

No one charged with any felony or misdemeanor involving moral turpitude shall be considered for employment in the District until there is a final disposition of the charge, except as may be allowed by the legal review committee, in accordance with the provisions below. [See DH(LOCAL)]

Examples of moral turpitude include, but are not limited to:

1. Public lewdness.
2. Prostitution.
3. Theft.
4. Swindling.

No one currently on probation, including deferred adjudication probation, for any offense shall be considered for employment, unless allowed by the legal review committee, in accordance with provisions below.

ARRESTS,
INDICTMENTS, CONVICTIONS, AND OTHER
ADJUDICATIONS

Conviction records will constitute reliable evidence that a person engaged in the conduct alleged because the criminal justice system requires the highest degree of proof ("beyond a reasonable doubt") for a conviction. Therefore, excluding extraordinary circumstances, the District will treat a conviction as proof of guilt.

Arrest records may not be reliable evidence that a person has actually committed a crime. To justify the use of arrest records as proof of misconduct, additional inquiries will be made. The review committee will examine the surrounding circumstances, offer the employee an opportunity to explain, and, if the employee denies engaging in the conduct, make the follow-up inquiries necessary to evaluate his/her credibility. The review committee is not required to conduct an informal trial or an extensive investigation to determine the employee's guilt or innocence. However, the review committee will make simple inquiries that could shed light on the likelihood of the individual's guilt in committing the underlying offense.

Deferred adjudication involves an individual entering a plea of guilty or no contest, which the court finds to be substantiated by evidence of guilt. A grant of deferred adjudication should be viewed as more indicative of a conviction. The review committee will make inquiries into evidence substantiating guilt similar to the inquiries made when an arrest is reported.

Not guilty adjudications and withdrawn or dismissed charges indicate that a court, a jury, or a law enforcement authority did not have sufficient proof beyond a reasonable doubt, which may or may not be indicative of guilt. The employee will be asked to explain, in writing, the circumstances and must provide a certified copy of the court paperwork showing the final disposition of every charge. The review committee may make additional inquiries into evidence substantiating guilt.

FELONY

A felony is an offense designated as such in the Texas Penal Code. The District will not employ anyone with a felony conviction occurring during the past ten years. If the employee was convicted of a felony more than ten years prior to employment, the District must determine if the underlying offense relates to the duties and responsibilities of the position or if the conviction was for a non-reviewable felony. An employee may continue to be eligible for employment in the District if a felony conviction over ten years old does not relate to the duties and responsibilities of the employee's position and was not for a non-reviewable offense. If a felony conviction over ten years old does relate to the duties and responsibilities of the employee's position, then the review committee must consider the likelihood of recurrence of the employee's criminal behavior. A determination by the review committee that the employee's behavior will not recur makes the employee eligible for continued employment; a finding to the contrary makes the employee ineligible for continued employment.

CLASS A AND CLASS B
MISDEMEANORS

Class A and Class B misdemeanors are those offenses designated as such in the Texas Penal Code. An employee may be eligible for continued employment if the conviction for a Class A or Class B misdemeanor is not related to duties and responsibilities of the employee's position. If the conviction occurred in the past five years and does relate to the duties and responsibilities of the employee's position, the employee is ineligible for continued employ-

	ment in the District if the review committee determines there is a high degree of likelihood for the recurrence of the behavior.
CLASS C MISDEMEANORS	Class C misdemeanors are those offenses designated as such in the Texas Penal Code. The District will not employ anyone convicted of a Class C misdemeanor involving moral turpitude. If convicted of a Class C misdemeanor that does not involve moral turpitude, the employee is ineligible for continued employment in the District if the review committee determines there is a high degree of likelihood for recurrence of the behavior.
MULTIPLE OFFENSES	An employee with multiple offenses that individually do not make him/her ineligible for employment may be deemed ineligible for continued employment when repetitious criminal behavior indicates a high degree of likelihood for recurrence of the behavior.
UNLISTED CRIMINAL HISTORY	If a criminal history record does not list an event reported by the employee he/she will be asked to explain, in writing, the circumstances for each reported incident. A certified copy of pertinent court paperwork showing final disposition of the charge must be included. The review committee may make additional inquiries.
NONDISCLOSURE	An employee who has successfully completed a deferred adjudication and who has succeeded in having the criminal court grant an order of nondisclosure may thereafter deny the occurrence of the arrest and prosecution. Texas Gov't Code § 552.142.
CLAIM OF ERROR IN RECORDS	An employee who claims that the reported criminal history record is erroneous may be provided a copy of the record so that he/she can undertake efforts to correct the record.
JUVENILE RECORDS	An employee will not be asked to disclose the contents of confidential juvenile records unless the employee was adjudicated as an adult.
LEGAL REVIEW COMMITTEE	The application of a person who has a criminal record that would preclude employment with the District using the criteria listed above shall be reviewed by the legal review committee made up of the criminal history check officer, assistant superintendent for human resources or designee, and director of employee relations as established by the District's Human Resources Department. The school attorney shall serve in an advisory capacity. The committee shall assess the records of potential employees. The legal review committee shall not review applications of persons whose criminal record includes a conviction, deferred adjudication, or plea of guilt, or nolo contendere for the offense of criminal homicide, capital murder; attempted murder; murder; voluntary manslaughter; involuntary manslaughter; unlawful transport, false imprisonment, trafficking of persons, improper relationship between educator and student, public lewdness involving a child or student, indecent exposure with a child or student, prohibited sexual conduct, sexual assault, rape, child abuse, abandoning or endangering a child, sale or purchase of a child, arson, indecency with a child; any felony theft offense; injury to a child, the elderly, or a person with a disability; kidnapping; aggravated kidnapping; aggravated sexual assault of a child; robbery, aggravated robbery; prostitution or solicitation of prostitution, child pornography, sexual solicitation of a child; obscenity; any felony where a deadly weapon was used or exhibited; any felony related to the manufacture, delivery, or possession of marijuana, a controlled substance, or dangerous drug; or any other crime that adversely affects the mission of the District.

GOVERNING CRITERIA FOR EMPLOYMENT DECISIONS

The following criteria shall be used by the legal review committee in determining whether or not to recommend a waiver of the criminal history restrictions to employment:

1. The relationship and seriousness of the crime.
2. The nature of the crime to the purpose of the District.
3. The extent to which employment might offer an opportunity to engage in further criminal activity of the same type as that in which the person had previously been involved.
4. The relationship of the crime to the ability, capacity, or fitness required to perform the duties and the responsibilities of the position with the District.
5. The age of the person at the time of the commission of the crime.
6. The time elapsed since the person's last criminal activity.
7. The evidence of the person's rehabilitation or rehabilitative effort while incarcerated or following release.
8. If the person holds a professional license, the results of any action taken by the licensing authority.
9. The other evidence of the person's present fitness, including letter(s) of recommendation from:
 - a. Prosecutors or law enforcement or correctional officers involved in the prosecution, arrest, or custody of the person.
 - b. The law enforcement officers in the community where the person resides.
 - c. Any other persons in contact with the convicted person.

10. The individual's patterns of habitual criminal activity.
11. The publicity surrounding the actual crime.
12. The person's clear and present danger to other staff, students, or the general public.
13. Probable guilt or innocence.
14. The accuracy of the information the employee provided to the District.
15. The potential impact of the conduct on the educational environment.
16. Any extenuating circumstances.

LEGAL REVIEW COMMITTEE
RECOMMENDATION

If, after applying the criteria outlined above, the legal review committee believes that the applicant should be considered for employment, the committee shall jointly sign a recommendation to the Superintendent or designee that such applicant is eligible for hire.

SUPERINTENDENT'S DECISION

If the Superintendent approves the recommendation, the applicant shall be considered eligible for hire.

FAILURE TO DISCLOSE
INFORMATION ON APPLICATION

An applicant shall not be employed by the District if he or she fails to disclose information on the employment application or during questioning regarding any criminal conviction, crime, deferred adjudication, or similar type of decree, or if he or she misrepresents any information regarding such conviction, crime, or deferred adjudication, or similar type of decree.

CRIMINAL HISTORY
BACKGROUND CHECK
— EMPLOYEES

At least once annually, the District shall obtain criminal history records of Webb County and the counties contiguous to Webb County. The District may obtain this information from any other county when it has reason to believe that an employee has been convicted of a crime in such county or from a police department, the Department of Public Safety, or the Texas Department of Corrections.

The District may suspend or terminate the employment of any person convicted of a felony or misdemeanor if the crime directly relates to the duties and responsibilities of the individual or directly relates to, or adversely affects, the mission of the District.

PENALTIES FOR FAILING TO DISCLOSE
INFORMATION

The legal review committee shall assess the records of employees found to have criminal records that would bar them from employment with the District. The committee shall use the following guidelines to determine if an employee should be recommended for termination based on his or her criminal record:

1. The omission by the employee to not disclose a prior criminal conviction when requested at the time of employment shall be presumed to be intentional. The District however, shall have the burden of proof.
2. If the employee was not asked to divulge any previous convictions as a prerequisite to employment, a recommendation for termination shall be based on the same criteria as required for applicants.
3. If a conviction involving a felony or misdemeanor involving moral turpitude is discovered subsequent to employment, a recommendation for termination shall be based on the same criteria as required for applicants as found above.

An employee shall notify the District within three workdays if he or she is charged with, convicted of, granted deferred adjudication, or if he or she has entered a plea of nolo contendere for any criminal offense. This notification shall be made in writing to the employee's immediate supervisor or principal. Failure to make such notification may result in termination of employment.

Any employee placed on deferred adjudication may be recommended for termination based upon the underlying facts that led to the deferred adjudication. For the purposes of any termination hearing, the facts to which the individual pleaded in order to obtain the deferred adjudication shall be presumed to exist and be true and correct.

The District may suspend or terminate the employment of any person convicted of felony or misdemeanor if the crime directly relates to the duties and responsibilities of the individual or directly relate to or adversely affects the mission of the District.

An employee under felony indictment that adversely affects the mission of the District shall be recommended for suspension without pay pending adjudication of his or her case.

After notification of a proposed suspension without pay or employment termination, a contract employee may request a hearing in accordance with the DF series.

CONTRACTUAL VACANCIES

Subject to the provisions for campus-based administrative positions and Section 11.163 of the Texas Education Code, notice of vacancies for contractual positions shall be advertised by posting public notices for not fewer than ten school days. Effective with the adoption of this policy, a person who has retired from the District under TRS shall not be eligible to be rehired by the District on either a full-time or part-time basis unless the person is to be hired in one of the following:
