SUBJECT: New Policy- 4650 Home School Policy on a second read

Policy 4650 Home School Policy is a new policy created that outlines the requirements for parents wishing to home school their student(s). This policy also defines District services that will be provided to students on home school instruction as well as outlines home school student participation in district curricular and extracurricular activities. The Legal Department has requested this policy. We are seeking Board approval of this policy on a second read.
