

Admin Reports to the Board

March 2026

Kyle Luedtke Superintendent	<ul style="list-style-type: none">• Donna Tietz, Kathy Mishler and Ella Rauchbauer will be participating in professional development with Loyal School District financial literacy teacher, Jessica Zarnke. The goal is to review our current curriculum, then establish a seamless K-12 system. These ladies will be meeting in August and begin delivery of the curriculum in 2026-27.• We already have over 50 respondents to the staff survey which was launched on March 6. Admin will review the data after the collection window closes on March 23. We will have the information for the April board meeting.• I am currently reading The Anxious Generation How the Great Rewiring of Childhood is Causing an Epidemic of Mental Illness. This book was recommended to me by Chuck Holicky. It discusses how technology has changed childhood and increased mental illness issues amongst our kids.
Erin Hansford Elementary Principal	<ul style="list-style-type: none">• The Elementary celebrated Read Across America week, highlighting Dr. Seuss' birthday right before break. Students enjoyed all sorts of guest readers and even a visit from the Cat in the Hat!• AimsWeb Screeners for Reading and Math have started this week in grades 4K-8. This data will help staff adjust intervention groups for the remainder of the school year.• The WI Forward Exam window is now open. 3rd-8th grade students will begin these assessments the week of March 30th, hopefully wrapping up by April 10th. The Forward window will be open until April 24th.• Curriculum orders and renewals will be organized in April for the 26-27 school year. This year, our focus of review will be in Math resources 4K-12.
Marcus Cornelius 6-12 Principal	<ul style="list-style-type: none">• Middle School Speech wrapped up with their final competition and a celebration• Middle School had a dance!• Winter Wellness activities finished up well• Trimester 2 Awards Assembly• 2 Powerlifters to Nationals• Spring Sports are starting• Spring Testing is on the way!
Jada Anderson Pupil Services Director	<ul style="list-style-type: none">• Late February, we received this year's Joint Federal Notification packet that reflects data from last school year. The past two years we have been identified as "need assistance" which has required us to reflect on current practices, collect data, make changes and meet frequently with state representatives. I am happy to announce that Frederic is no longer in that "needs improvement category" and has now PASSED all the requirements (YAY!)• Last Friday we met as a middle school team to go through the intervention schedule that was created for next year. Although this schedule is set in stone on paper, there are still a lot of logistical pieces with groupings that need to be ironed out. The team brought up some great questions and we will continue to work through those throughout the remainder of the school year and into the summer months.• Kelly Fisher and myself were asked to present at a CESA DAC meeting about our Forward Testing data collection processes. Kelly was the real brains behind the operation and did a great job of presenting! We had many schools
