

StudentsRequests to Contact Students and Student Interviews by Non-School PersonnelRemovals of Students and Interviews of Students

In dealing with law enforcement officials, Scottsbluff Public Schools employees are not to obstruct government operations or unreasonably refuse or fail to aid a peace officer, but are also to attempt to prevent undue interference with district operations or educational programming. For the purposes of law enforcement, (or other similar investigative processes) school staff may not transport the student.

Removals of Students by Law Enforcement Officials

Law enforcement officers shall be permitted to remove a child from school when legally authorized to do so. For purposes of this policy, a law enforcement officer is defined as: sheriffs, coroners, jailers, marshals, police officers, state highway patrol officers, members of the National Guard on active service by direction of the Governor during periods of emergency, and all other persons with similar authority to make arrests.

Law enforcement officers, may in the line of duty, require a student to accompany him or her for questioning or detention either with or without an arrest warrant. A peace officer has the lawful authority to take immediate temporary custody of children under the age of 18 with an arrest warrant, or without a warrant or order of the court when:

1. The child has violated a state law or municipal ordinance and such child was 11 years of age or older at the time of the violation, and the officer has reasonable grounds to believe such child committed such violation and was 11 years of age or older at the time of the violation;
2. The child is seriously endangered in his or her surroundings and immediate removal appears to be necessary for the child's protection;
3. The officer believes the child to be mentally ill and dangerous as defined in Neb. Rev. Stat. § 71-908 and that the harm described in that section is likely to occur before proceedings may be instituted before the juvenile court;
4. The officer has reasonable grounds to believe that the juvenile has run away from his or her parent/guardian or custodian;
5. A probation officer has reasonable cause to believe that a juvenile is in violation of probation and that the juvenile will attempt to leave the jurisdiction or place lives or property in danger;
6. The officer has reasonable grounds to believe the juvenile is truant from school;
7. The officer has reasonable grounds to believe the child is immune from prosecution for prostitution under subsection (5) of the Neb. Rev. Stat. § 28-801; or,
8. The child has committed an act or engaged in behavior described in subdivision (1), (2), (3)(b), or (4) of the Neb. Rev. Stat. § 43-247 and such child was under 11 years of age at the time of such act or behavior, and the officer has reasonable cause to believe such child committed such act or engaged in such behavior and was under 11 years of age at such time.

If a peace officer or probation officer requests to take custody of a student who is at that time under the control and jurisdiction of Scottsbluff Public Schools, the following action is to be taken:

- a. Establish Authority to Remove - The student should be released after appropriate measures are taken and documented to ensure that the officer has the authority to take the student. The Affidavit & Release to Remove Student form may be used for this purpose.
- b. Notify Local Law Enforcement - In some instances, there may be orders for custody of a student served by the officers with authority to arrest from outside the jurisdiction of Scottsbluff Public Schools. Local law enforcement should be contacted and requested to participate in or monitor the removal.
- c. Notify Parent/Guardian of Removal - When a principal or other school official releases a minor student to a peace officer for the purpose of removing the minor from the school premises, the principal or other school official shall take immediate steps to notify the parent/guardian or responsible relative of the minor regarding the release of the minor student to the officer and the place to which the student is reportedly being taken. Provided, however, when a minor student has been taken into custody as a victim of suspected child abuse or neglect, the principal or other school official is not required to notify the parent/guardian, but shall provide the peace officer with the address and telephone number of the minor student's parent/guardian.

A student should not be released to a private detective or "special police officer" who is not an officer of a Nebraska political subdivision or an officer of an agency of the federal government without consent of the student's parent/guardian or custodian.

Interviews of Students by Law Enforcement Officials

Law enforcement officers and other law authorities should be urged to contact students for questioning outside the instructional day and off school premises whenever possible. When it is appropriate that such questioning occur, the following guidelines are to be followed.

Interviews Not Related to District Events

If an interview of a student is requested during school hours concerning an ongoing investigation of a crime not related to Scottsbluff Public Schools, questioning should not take place until the student's parent/guardian or custodian has been contacted and permission is given for such interview, unless the crime being investigated is neglect or abuse of that student, in which case consent and permission is not required. The consent should be documented. The presence of a school employee during the interview is not necessary.

Interviews Related to District Events

If the investigation relates to an incident which took place on school premises or during instructional time, it is not necessary to obtain consent of the student's parent/guardian or custodian. In these situations, an employee of the District should be present during the interview to ensure that the interview relates only to the incident which took place on school premises or during instructional time or something which is directly related thereto.

Child Abuse or Neglect

If an investigator represents that an interview is necessary to collect information concerning an allegation of child abuse or neglect or an offense involving a family relation and it is clear that obtaining parental consent for the interview would be impossible or counter-productive, the interview may be conducted without consent of the student's parent/guardian or custodian. In these situations, an employee of Scottsbluff Public Schools should accompany the student to the interview location.

Probation Officer Interview

A probation officer assigned to a student by a court may be allowed the opportunity, on request, to interview a student on school premises. In such situations, it is neither necessary nor desirable that a district employee be present during the interview. It also is not necessary to obtain the consent of the parent/guardian or custodian.

Disclosure of Student Records

School employees shall not, in the course of dealing with a peace officer or probation officer, disclose any confidential student records or information from such student records other than in response to a court order or subpoena or as otherwise authorized by state law and the Family Educational Rights and Privacy Act (FERPA).

Removals and Interviews by Persons other than Law Enforcement Officials

A person who comes to school premises to interview a student or remove a student prior to the end of the student's instructional day must obtain permission of an administrator or designee.

Permission to remove is not to be granted without consent of the student's parent/guardian or custodian, or a person authorized by the student's parent/guardian or custodian to give such permission.

Permission to interview on subjects not related to school matters is not to be granted unless there is a clearly valid and proper reason for the interview and such is not disruptive to school operations or the student's educational program. Ordinarily such contacts shall be restricted to the student's parent/guardian or custodian or a friend of the family when an emergency or other similar circumstance exists.
