EXEMPTIONS FROM REQUIRED INSTRUCTION

If the religious beliefs and teachings of a student or his parents or legal guardian are contrary to the content of a school subject or to any part of a school activity, the student may be exempt from participation. To receive such an exemption, the parent or legal guardian must present a written request for exemption to the school principal, stating the conflict involved.

Exemptions from required instruction do not excuse a pupil from the total semester hours required for graduation. To fulfill the required instructional semester hours, the student may be given an alternative assignment, project or activity.
