All pricing in this quote reflects manufacturer and distributor costs as available at the time of issuance. Please note that products containing memory are subject to market-driven price adjustments, and vendors may update pricing up to the point of shipment. The pricing in this quote will be subject to adjustment for any price increase from the vendor after the point of quote issuance to the point of shipment. A purchase order issued in response to this quote will be subject to adjustment for any price increase from the vendor after the time of quote issuance to the point of shipment.

While quoted prices are not guaranteed until your order is confirmed and invoiced by the vendor, CompuNet is committed to working for its customers to receive fair and competitive pricing, even during a time of market volatility. To the extent permitted by the vendor, we will offer the opportunity to cancel an order prior to shipment if updated pricing does not match the customer's budget.

This quote may be accepted by signature of Customer's authorized representative below. If Customer intends to accept this quote by issuance of a purchase order, it must include the following language:

Customer acknowledges and agrees: (a) that the pricing in this purchase order reflects the manufacturer or distributor cost available to CompuNet at the time of issuance; (b) that the vendor of the products listed in this purchase order may update pricing up to the point of shipment; and (b) that this purchase order will be subject to pricing adjustment by CompuNet to reflect any price increase from the vendor up to the point of shipment and invoicing by the vendor. The foregoing sentence shall control over any conflicting terms or conditions between Customer and CompuNet, or any conflicting provision of an existing master agreement between Customer and CompuNet.

Alternately, if customer PO references quote # and includes "Per terms and conditions in CompuNet Quote (Applicable Quote #)", PO will be accepted.

A Purchase Order not including the foregoing language will not constitute an acceptance and is rejected.

The undersigned representative of Customer represents and warrants that he or she is an authorized signatory of Customer, with authority to bind Customer to and accept this Quote, and that upon acceptance this Quote will be the binding obligation of Customer without the need for any additional permission or consent.
