6. Reports

6.1. Boone Central Recognitions

The board and administration want to thank everyone for their hard work and dedication to Boone Central. As part of our ongoing focus on continuous school improvement, board growth and development, and promotion of the district the following were recognized at the Board meeting:

Custodial Staff, especially Arlene Zoucha and Mike Scheffler, for adjusting their work shift and responsibilities to adjust to the demands of COVID. All custodial staff was recognized for the work they do every day to ensure that our building is prepared and cleaned.

Dawn Thies was recognized for taking on the additional task of tracking and communicating our COVID situations. Dawn has almost completely taken on this role and has been able to carefully manage each and every situation this entire year.

Lynne Webster was recognized for her continuous contributions to the school and our students. Lynne covers a variety of tasks with dedication and passion every single day. She serves as the HS MTSS coordinator, the Crisis Response Team Coordinator, and works very hard to make sure kids are provided all the appropriate guidance needed as freshmen to begin thinking about life after High School. She plays a major role in the scheduling of students for classes. Lynne's attention to detail and focus on students is extremely important for the growth and success of our students.

MS Student Council was recognized for their "Giving Tree" idea and the multiple other activities they have planned throughout the year as ways to give-back and dedicate their time to the school and community.

Angie Sup was recognized for the work she does as a paraeducator in our elementary. She comes everyday ready to tackle any tasks with passion, energy, and dedication.

Kris Pestel was acknowledged for her work with students and the many things she volunteers to do. Kris is known for always going above and beyond; no stone is ever left unturned. Kris is a dedicated employee who always has the best interest of the students as a top priority.

Bus drivers and transportation staff were recognized for their continuous and cautious efforts to keep our students safe while transporting them to and from school and to all of our extracurricular events.

Kindergarten teachers and paras were recognized for their dedication, especially the additional commitment to our incoming group of students who were impacted by a shortened preschool year due to COVID. This group of teachers and paraeducators were recognized for being a big part of our student's educational foundation needed for continued growth and success!

The district as a whole was recognized for their teamwork; ensuring that Boone Central was able to keep our doors open to students since the start of the 2020-21 school year. Because of this teamwork, Boone Central did not have one COVID-related calendar interruption since the start of 2020-21. Boone Central staff is known for being focused on a common goal of "doing whatever it takes". It is the passion and determination of our staff that make Boone Central the best!

6.2. Continuous School Improvement Teams

Teachers presented details on the Reading Language Arts curriculum review and recommendation for adoption of new curriculum.

6.3. Board Committees

After ongoing discussion with the Petersburg Village Board the facilities committee made a recommendation to the board to pursue demolition of the Petersburg campus facilities with intent to place the real property back into the local and district tax base. Members of the facilities committee feel this is the most responsible action the board could take and are hopeful this effort will have a positive impact on the community and the district. The facilities committee, at the request of the Petersburg Village Board, may entertain and evaluate a similar option that would leave the Gymnasium intact for community and potentially district use while making surrounding real property available for residential development. Facilities committee also commented on extra parking lots needed on the east side of the building. Construction reported noted that the JEO surface drainage/playground drawings should be complete this week.

6.4. Superintendent

Superintendent Hardwick provided an update on instructional hours for 2020-21 school year; recommending a calendar change that dismisses students early in May to allow staff time needed to prepare for Middle School transition. The COVID framework document has been fully reviewed; updated information and guidelines will be posted.

6.4.1. Emergency Paid Sick Leave

Superintendent Hardwick provided an update on the emergency paid sick leave that was voluntarily extended by the board at the January meeting. A small percentage of staff members, including substitute staff, have had the opportunity to receive the COVID-19 vaccination. Discussions are taking place with East Central District Health Department about vaccinations for additional staff.

6.5. Principal and Activities Director Reports

Mr. Perone provided an update on winter activities. District wrestling will be hosted at Boone Central on February 13th; capacity limitations will be determined by the NSAA and communicated in advance.

Board & Administrator

FOR SCHOOL BOARD MEMBERS

February 2021 Vol. 34, No. 10

Start off on the right foot as a new school board member

Running as a school board candidate and serving on the school board are two very different things. If you have recently been elected as a school board member, you may feel like you have won the race. However, you should quickly shift your attention to the next challenge: governing the operations of the school district.

Learning how to be a board member and an advocate for your district can take time. But there are a few things you can do immediately to ensure you start your term on the right foot.

Use the following checklist to ensure you have all your bases covered as a new board member:

Check boxes as completed	Actions to take as a new board member
<input type="checkbox"/>	Introduce yourself to the board president and your fellow board members.
<input type="checkbox"/>	Introduce yourself to the superintendent. To get acquainted and develop rapport, consider inviting the superintendent to lunch or meeting with him individually.
<input type="checkbox"/>	Review your board's mission statement, strategic plan, and goals.
<input type="checkbox"/>	Obtain a copy of the board's policy manual and bylaws and review each chapter.
<input type="checkbox"/>	Ask the board president or other senior board member to explain board procedures for meetings and adopting and revising policies.
<input type="checkbox"/>	Review the board's calendar, add the dates of board meetings to your schedule, and print out the meeting agenda for any upcoming meetings. Add any other important dates to your schedule and individual calendar.
<input type="checkbox"/>	Attend orientation for new board members and ask for clarification of your role as a board member.
<input type="checkbox"/>	Examine the district's most recent annual performance report. Ask your superintendent to brief you on the state's accountability system and how it works, if you are unfamiliar.
<input type="checkbox"/>	Review the district's current budget and budget calendar. Obtain any necessary materials the board is developing or using to prepare the next budget.
<input type="checkbox"/>	If your board is holding a reception for you and other new board members, attend the reception. This may be a good opportunity to get to know your colleagues, the superintendent, and meet stakeholders and important members of the community.
<input type="checkbox"/>	Ensure you review your state's Open Meetings Act and Freedom of Information Act. Also, review state and local employment and education laws and policies. Ask the board's legal counsel for clarification if you have any questions.
<input type="checkbox"/>	Learn about the process for hiring and evaluating the superintendent. If the superintendent's evaluation is coming up soon, ask your board president or other senior board member for help in understanding the evaluation process. ■

Review nepotism policy

Because school districts are often one of the largest employers in the community, it's not unusual to have relatives working together in the district. To promote a fair workplace, districts usually have anti-nepotism policies. Such policies help deflect litigation surrounding hiring, promotion, evaluation, and compensation in schools.

Nepotism is the act of favoring someone for employment purposes, such as hiring or promoting, due to a non-work relationship. Anti-nepotism rules in school districts typically prohibit a public official from appointing, promoting, employing, advancing or advocating for appointment, employment, promotion, or advancement in or to a position in the agency in which he serves or over which he exercises control any individual who is a relative. The rule then defines who is considered a "relative."

Many nepotism policies have been in place for decades. Considering reviewing your rule with district counsel to ensure that it is equitable as well as up to date. ■

Conduct a COVID-19 performance review for your district

With March 2021 marking the one-year anniversary of the extended school closures caused by COVID-19 for many districts across the country, now is the time for district leaders to take a brief step back to see how effective their district's response to the pandemic was.

As with any good performance review, districts should take the time to evaluate what parts of their response they did well — for example, maybe your district got iPads and/or laptops to your students within two weeks of the shutdown! Districts should also consider how their response could have been improved — maybe they could have reached out to parents more, or sent additional training or encouragement to its staff. In addition, take the time to acknowledge district staff who went above and beyond during the COVID-19 pandemic.

While no one wants a repeat of the COVID-19 school closures, districts shouldn't assume that this was a one-time deal. Reviewing how their response to COVID-19 met (or missed) the mark is one of the best ways to ensure that districts are better prepared to meet the needs of their students should they need to close schools down for an extended period of time. ■

Two tips for better board meetings

Consider these two ways to improve board meetings:

1. Arrive early. Instead of arriving to board room at the last minute or sitting off alone studying your agenda materials, make it a point to meet and greet audience members. Introduce yourself to individuals you don't know and ask whether they are interested in a particular agenda item.

2. Start off on a positive note. Ask the superintendent to begin each meeting with good news about students, employees, or the district's educational program. ■
