4. Agenda Items

4.1. Planning Olsson is working on getting pins and numbers for the lots in the new development. Dustin planted 6 new trees and will put up a fence around them to protect them from deer. Mike Stalder plans to work until the end of October.

The board wants to do something to fund the new development and columbarum area. Pam Rasmussen suggested when they start the pinning of the lots to have the local newspaper get a picture and do a story on the development and include donation information. The third CD has been taken out for with the perpetual care fund money. Pam will get totals of all CDs at the next meeting.

Pam Rasmussen also let the board know that she has put in her resignation with the city and will work on training someone to do her duties with the cemetery sales and records.
