Operation Snowball Day- Mia Harris

- Hi! My name is Mia! Operation Snowball Day was for every single student at Diamond Lake School.
- Students talked about what they liked, what inspires them, and how they inspire other kids.
- We got to tie dye t-shirts, build with marshmallows, and make our own mittens with kids from different classes.

Mittens Project- Rey Cadena

- Hi! My name is Rey! I am proud of the mittens we made because they show me and my friends being kind to each other.
  - The green and blue one is me and my friend Francisco sitting on the bus together.
  - The pink one is me and my friend Brianna. I made my mitten pink because that is Brianna's favorite color.
- I also wrote two songs about this.
  - One is called "The Kindness Song"
  - One is called "Kindness is Cool Remix"

Student Reflection Form- Mia Harris

- We wrote a student reflection form from Operation Snowball Day.
- My favorite part of Operation Snowball Day was building with marshmallows and drinking hot chocolate because I never had it at school before and it was fun to build with my friends.

- Operation Snowball Day made me feel different and beautiful because I got to do different things and everyone was kind.

Student Reflection Form- Rey Cadena

- My favorite part of Operation Snowball Day was drinking the hot cocoa because I was cold and I got to spend the day with Warren, Richard, Alexa, Kenny, and Anthony.
- One thing I learned is that we always have to share toys and be kind to each other.
- Operation Snowball Day made me feel different and beautiful because we made our team poster called “Snow Rainbow” and we all got to draw whatever we wanted on it.

Community Cuddles- Leah Ellinor

- Hi my name is Leah! It was really fun to make all these Valentine's Day cards for people we did not know.
- We gave them to people who are older than you and who live in a retirement center.
- We saw all these pictures of the little kids giving the cards and that made us happy.

Community Cuddles- Leah Ellinor

- They also gave out cards at the Public Library.
- Even though their masks were on, we could tell they were excited to be there.

Community Cuddles- Aiden Gonzalez

- Hi my name is Aiden! We painted anything that was kind onto Jewel bags.
- Kids delivered them to the stores and gave them to people.

- The title of the book (or other library resource) being challenged

Indigenous Peoples

- The action requested in such a challenge, and the outcome of such challenges

Family requested access to the book to review shared content. Library teacher shared the title with family.

- Details on the reason for the challenge

Family contacted teacher questioning if the same content materials were available at the public library. Family asked why this book was being used with 2nd Grade students. Teacher explained that Illinois law changed Columbus Day to Indigenous Peoples Day and the book was shared with students to provide educational experiences regarding that culture prior to the day off of school.

- Whether the book (or other library resource) was a part of a curriculum or official program

The book was not part of a curriculum or official program, but rather a choice material for a read aloud session in Library classes. Lesson included explanation and reasoning for the changing of the name of the holiday.

- Any available information on the challenger
