OPPORTUNITY AUDIT

CONDUCTING AN OPPORTUNITY AUDIT

Working together, we can build the schools our students deserve! Think about your school – do you need a way to assess what’s going well in your school, and what may need to be improved for the success of all students? This Opportunity Audit will help you develop a plan to make sure your students have everything they need, eliminate inequities, and strengthen student learning. This Audit will help you assess and take action on both the accessibility and effectiveness of policies, programs, and budgeting that allow you to create the quality learning environment necessary for all students to succeed. The NEA Opportunity Audit data in conjunction with our GPS Indicators Framework (www.nea.org/gpsindicators) will assist you in creating a plan to eliminate inequities and elevate student achievement.

The Every Student Succeeds Act (ESSA) has opened the door for educators, parents, and students to be leaders in fulfilling the promise of a great public school for every student. ESSA requires that states, districts, and schools engage stakeholders in plans to help ensure the success of all students. ESSA also stipulates that plans be based on needs assessments, similar to the one you and your colleagues complete with this Opportunity Audit. The data you collect from your Audit and by engaging parents and the community can help inform which resources and programs get written into local ESSA plans. Additional resources and supports are available at myschoolmyvoice.nea.org.

THREE STEPS FOR A SUCCESSFUL OPPORTUNITY AUDIT

- 1 Build Common Understanding. Review the terminology and definitions to ensure a common understanding throughout the audit process.
- 2 Analyze the Continuum. Use the audit continuum consistently for each indicator. What does it mean for an element to be Emerging, Improving, or Flourishing?
- 3 Assess Your School. Complete the audit for each element. Where along the continuum is your school for each indicator?

Your Audit Team

When conducting your audit, do not feel like you need to conduct it alone! Engage colleagues within your school, parents/families who will work with you to share their thoughts and input, and others whose valuable input may help create a fuller picture of your school's successes and opportunities. Using the chart below, identify who can work with you on the audit, and what they will contribute.

Criteria VI: Schools engage with families and communities to collaborate in learning, advocacy, and securing resources.

Element	Continuum Score	Discussion Notes
A(i). Our school successfully engages families by accommodating family schedules and offering home visits.		--In regards to family schedules, many indications of teachers adjusting parent-teacher conferences (dates/times), for example, to support family attendance; not an expectation and based on the individual educator --Home visits are not an expectation particularly for teaching staff; student services staff have made home visits on occasion
A(ii). Our school submits data to our district annually on family and community engagement.		4K submits data due to funding; other buildings are not required to do so
B(i). Our school has a full-time community liaison, tasked with engaging and representing families, as well as conveying school policies and		We do not have a position in the district like this procedures.

B(ii). Our school empowers family members and caregivers to access and utilize school materials and information in their context, including providing information in multiple formats and languages.		--The addition of a communication and engagement specialist has improved social media and email communication this year --We have made progress regarding Spanish-language particularly (hired Spanish interpreter/translator and have allocated more resources for other languages interpretation). --We have about 20 home languages represented in our district; not all families who speak/understand other languages require interpretation and/or translation. There are 12 different languages spoken by students who receive English Language Learner support services in our schools. --Do all families feel connected to information and materials?
C. Our school offers out-of-school-time learning programs and wrap-around services, such as health, language, mentoring, and tutoring.		--Health: Dental supports for some students occur within school --Building Bridges (K-8) does provide some in-school and community-based mental health supports and connections for students and their families; For the high school, we have two applications to partner with a community-based mental health provider so this is still in progress --Our school social workers do connect families to community-based wrap-around services however the district does not provide/house these programs
D. Our schools require all educators and administrators to participate in professional development, focusing on family and community engagement, with input from higher education institutions and community stakeholders, as part of licensure programs and professional learning.		--Professional Development (PD) for staff begins in August and includes a few days throughout the year. Family and community engagement can be integrated within PD and is rarely the primary topic of the PD. --The EL (English Learner) Program and Title I (federal funding around closing opportunity gaps) do have some family/community engagement commitments
