Education that develops the potential to embrace the future

The Ridgeview School Community will encourage students to embrace the future by adapting to challenges, making decisions, and solving problems as respectful and responsible citizens members of an ever-changing society.

Superintendent Board Report

June 2025

Community.

- We have received word that the Teacher Vacancy Grant will be awarded for a third and final year. We do expect the grant to be less than the previous two years, due to changes in the state budget. More information will be released soon.

Students

- Even though we are in the summer months, the building is still busy with a variety of student activities. Breakfast and lunch deliveries are going well. If you are interested in receiving meals, please contact the district office.

Staff

- Several staff have been in the building working on a variety of academic initiatives and to prepare for the upcoming school year.

Buildings, Grounds, & Transportation

- Building cleaning is in full swing. The custodial team is busy cleaning and painting.
