14. Superintendent's Report:
    A. Annual review of the district's major systems maintenance schedule
    B. Flooring replace is scheduled to begin May 18
    C. Parking lot construction scheduled for secondary first, then elementary

15. Vote to finalize the board adopted goals for the 26-27 school year.

16. Start the process to renew the vision-mission statement and the plan to communicate that statement that was done 5 years ago and is scheduled to be redone every 5 years.

17. Update board policy BAAB to include the following: The board of education will not employ relatives of more than two of the five school board members. State law prohibits board members from participating in any open session discussion or vote or any executive session discussion involving the employment or terms of employment of the person to whom they are related. Limiting the employment to two board members' relatives will still afford the district with a quorum of three board members who will be able to vote on employment matters.

18. New Business.
