THEC Rural Health Grant

The HEALTH Pathways Program (HEALTH) proposes a statewide, replicable model to address Tennessee's rural healthcare workforce shortage by creating a seamless educational and career pipeline from high school through medical school.

Led by the University of Tennessee, Knoxville (CECS) in collaboration with UT Health Science Center—College of Medicine Knoxville (UTHSC-COMK), Roane State and Walters State Community Colleges, and Roane and Claiborne County Schools. This will lead to increased dual enrollment course work, associates and bachelor level enrollment, meaningful work based learning, and medical school admissions. Roane County is receiving $377,164.80 over 4 years.

5. Develop and enhance apprenticeship programs with business and industry partners.

Roane County Schools

Learning Today, Leading Tomorrow

This is a Five-Year Plan, long enough for our vision to be established within the Roane County community and short enough for our vision to become a reality for the students of Roane County. It is a plan that assumes on-going reflection, re-examination and re-invigoration, leaving us ready for the challenges that a new decade in history will bring.

As we bring this plan to life, it is imperative that the entire community believes in the values of collaboration, innovation and generosity which will make these ideas a reality for the students of Roane County.

Roane Medical Center

Patient Support Care Assistant Program

This program is designed to bridge the gap between classroom learning and real-world medical careers, giving students a competitive advantage as they pursue higher education or enter the workforce directly after graduation—all while earning a paycheck and gaining meaningful experience.

Shadow medical professionals across various departments, gaining first hand insight into the day-to-day operations of a hospital.

Participate in hands-on learning experiences, including patient care procedures, lab work, and administrative tasks under the guidance of trained professionals.

New for 2026-27: Expanding WBL, clinical experiences, classroom guest speakers

THEC Rural Health Grant

The HEALTH Pathways Program (HEALTH) proposes a statewide, replicable model to address Tennessee's rural healthcare workforce shortage by creating a seamless educational and career pipeline from high school through medical school.

Led by the University of Tennessee, Knoxville (CECS) in collaboration with UT Health Science Center—College of Medicine Knoxville (UTHSC-COMK), Roane State and Walters State Community Colleges, and Roane and Claiborne County Schools. This will lead to increased dual enrollment course work, associates and bachelor level enrollment, meaningful work based learning, and medical school admissions. Roane County is receiving $377,164.80 over 4 years.
