2025-2026 Approved Cooperative Programs

A cooperative program is defined as two or more member schools forming a single team in a sport in which at least one of the schools does not have a team and has not had a team for the previous two years.

The association office approves cooperative programs on an annual basis. Each year, schools wishing to participate in a cooperative program must notify the state office prior to the first practice date in the sport(s) involved.

When co-ops are approved the list below and the school's directory page are updated to reflect the co-op status.

If your school has students participating with another school's team and you do not see the relationship shown below then the agreement has not be approved by the state office. You should contact the state office as soon as possible to resolve the situation.

2026-2027 Approved Cooperative Programs

A cooperative program is defined as two or more member schools forming a single team in a sport in which at least one of the schools does not have a team and has not had a team for the previous two years.

The association office approves cooperative programs on an annual basis. Each year, schools wishing to participate in a cooperative program must notify the state office prior to the first practice date in the sport(s) involved.

When co-ops are approved the list below and the school's directory page are updated to reflect the co-op status.

If your school has students participating with another school's team and you do not see the relationship shown below then the agreement has not be approved by the state office. You should contact the state office as soon as possible to resolve the situation.

Spring Fling Format Discussion

Division I Modifications

Option 1

- (8-Team Central Site Single-Elimination): Preserves the 8-team state tradition at the central hub while reducing travel costs and weather congestion.

Option 2

- (Regional Quarterfinals + 4-Team Central Site): Directly aligns Division I with the Division II model, reducing central host field demands and eliminating travel for four non-advancing teams. Quarterfinal rounds played at regional sites would be comparable to the current configuration where preliminary games are played at local high school baseball fields and the McKnight and Starplex Parks.

Option 3

- Stay with the current format.

Division II Modifications

Option 1

- (Finals Only Format): Play semifinals at regional sites, with winners advancing to the central site stadium.

Option 2

- (Calendar Adjustment): Division II Tournaments culminate one week earlier or one week later than currently scheduled.

Option 3

- Stay with the current format.

Spring Fling is the largest logistical undertaking on the TSSAA calendar, coordinating championships across multiple classifications and sports simultaneously. While Week 1 showcased a number of new facilities and featured perfect weather, Week 2 exposed vulnerabilities in our current tournament structure due to extended weather delays.

Week 1: Highlights & Logistics Overview

- High School Tennis & Middle School Softball: High School Tennis thrived at Chattanooga's Champions Club. Middle School Softball successfully utilized the all-turf layouts at Frost Stadium, eliminating weather risks for those brackets.
- Middle School Baseball & Middle School Soccer: Contests were efficiently managed at East Hamilton and Ooltewah High Schools, culminating in final rounds at Lee University. Middle School Soccer proceeded smoothly at the Siegel Soccer Complex in Murfreesboro.
- Track & Multi-Events: The Decathlon and Pentathlon events were held at high school venues (Hardin Valley Academy, FRA, Ensworth)
- Boys and Girls Lacrosse & Girls Flag Football: High School Boys and Girls Lacrosse generated impressive crowds in their second year at Ravenwood and Centennial High Schools. Girls Flag Football delivered a historic, showcase finish with Ravenwood overcoming a 25-0 halftime deficit to secure the AA title 27-25 over Mt. Juliet.

Week 2: Weather Challenges

Week 2 experienced unprecedented weather disruptions, marking what some might say was the most operationally challenging week for TSSAA in many years. Rain and lightning impacted events every day from Wednesday through Saturday.

- Facility Strain: Softball turf backups were unavailable on Saturday. Baseball games had to be played later than we would have liked, with some ending past midnight at local high schools. Soccer was able to proceed after several lightning delays due to the presence of turf fields at the Richard Siegel Soccer Complex, although the championship games had to be moved from the stadium to the secondary turf fields. TSSAA was forced to completely abandon MTSU for the Division I Baseball Championships on Friday due to a saturated infield and the unlikely prospect of playing four games in a single day on a field without turf and rain in the forecast. As a result, all championship games were played on Friday at local high schools (Siegel, Riverdale, Oakland, MTCS).

- Emergency Relocations: To avoid having teams play more than two games in a day (a practice heavily criticized when Division II was forced to do so last year), we decided to push the championships one day with Division II Softball playing on Friday and Division I Softball championships playing on Saturday. Riverdale High School and Shelbyville High School graciously offered their facilities as a backup in the absence of a turf field. The Division II Class A Softball Championship was completed on Friday as scheduled at MTSU, but the Division II Class AA championship between Baylor and Chattanooga Christian was suspended with the score tied 3-3 in the 6th inning. The field was lost at MTSU, which initiated the contingency plan to finish this game at Riverdale, but the heavy rain made that impossible with the flooded outfield. The decision was made to send the two schools home, and arrangements were made for Baylor and Chattanooga Christian to finish the game on Saturday at Frost Stadium in Chattanooga, while we attempted to play two Division I Championship games at Riverdale and two at Shelbyville Central. Riverdale's outfield once again became unplayable after heavy rain, which forced the Class 3A game, which was suspended, as well as the 4A game, to be moved to Shelbyville Central as well. Shelbyville Central High School became the sole host for all four softball state championships.

- The Near-Miss: At 8:00 PM on Saturday, the Class 4A Softball Final (Stewarts Creek vs. Maryville) was halted by a lengthy lightning delay, with no clear window to play until 3:00 AM. Discussions began on what would happen if the games could not be finished, with no clear solutions on the table. Fortunately, a weather window appeared, allowing play to resume at 10:40 PM, with teams and staff finally exiting the complex at 12:30 AM Sunday morning.

> Despite the extraordinary efforts of state office staff, site directors, officials, coaches, and local volunteers, TSSAA was pushed to the brink of the "nightmare scenario" that has been discussed before... the inability to finish state championship tournaments before losing student-athletes to post-Memorial Day weekend roster attrition. In an effort to reduce the likelihood of this occurring, address the concerns from participating school administrators regarding significant travel costs for hotels and food, and respect the operational limits of the event partners and our volunteer network, the state office staff is requesting authorization to develop alternative tournament formats for the Board of Control and TSSAA membership to review. In consultation with affected school administrators, options could center around shifting to single-elimination formats in baseball and softball or executing the quarterfinal rounds at high school sites prior to bringing the 'Final Four' teams to the centralized state venue.

Among supporters, immediate implementation is the dominant preference.

Among opponents, “should not be implemented” is the dominant response.

Neutral respondents lean toward a later window, especially 2027–28.

Summary for the Board of Control's consideration

No clear coach consensus: 41.3% support, 43.9% oppose, and 14.8% are neutral.

The tradeoff: a more meaningful and potentially more efficient district tournament versus fewer postseason opportunities.

Competitive position matters: recent district champions and runners-up are more supportive than third-place teams and non-qualifiers.

Operationally, 67.1% support playing boys' and girls' elimination games on the same night when it reduces travel and calendar conflicts.

If the Board moves forward, the open responses offer some valuable insight from coaches.

See next slide for a summary of comments.

Source: Coach survey, 351 responses. Multi-select questions may total more than 351.

Summary of Comments – Most Common/Repeated

“Making the region tournament is a big deal to us.”
That sentiment appeared repeatedly from smaller and less traditionally successful programs. For those schools, postseason participation itself is part of the student-athlete experience and a measure of program success.

“The current consolation game has little meaning; an elimination game would give it real significance.”
Supporters believe the proposal rewards regular-season and district-tournament success while reducing games that can be lopsided, costly or strategically manipulated.

“A fourth-place team in one district may be better than a first-place team in another.”
Multiple coaches supplied personal examples of fourth-place teams upsetting a #1 seed, advancing to region semifinals. That makes competitive imbalance among districts the real argument.

Summary of Comments – Unrelated to approval/denial

A handful of coaches specifically supported the 3rd/4th elimination concept but objected to the proposed calendar, especially the Friday/Saturday regional schedule.

Scheduling Concern:
Several coaches who otherwise supported the proposed elimination format expressed concern with the proposed Friday/Saturday regional schedule. The primary concern was requiring quarterfinal winners to play a region semifinal with less than 24 hours of recovery and preparation.

> An alternative suggested by coaches was to play all region quarterfinals on Saturday, semifinals on Monday, and championships on Tuesday.

The opposition to the proposed schedule was not necessarily opposition to the policy itself. Some respondents essentially said, "Yes to the format, but not with this calendar."

To Whom it May Concern

Obion County Central High School is requesting an exemption from Article 1 Section 7 involving Cooperative Programs, specifically the requirement of a school being two years removed from having a sport to form a cooperative agreement, in order to allow Callie Tucker, a senior at South Fulton High School to participate in Girls Soccer at OCCHS.

South Fulton and Obion County Central are the two high schools in the Obion County School system and compete in soccer in different classifications. South Fulton is a Class A school with an enrollment of 180 students. Obion County Central is a Class AA school with an enrollment of 655. Callie Tucker played soccer at South Fulton during her freshman and sophomore years. Entering Callie's junior year, South Fulton did not field a girls soccer team and will not field one this upcoming school year for her senior year. Since South Fulton and Obion County Central are sister schools that would not have been in the same District, we are asking for an exemption to allow her the opportunity to play her senior year.

A transfer to OCCHS was considered under the new transfer rule with the intention of returning to South Fulton after the soccer season was over since soccer is the only sport Callie plays. However, Callie is an exceptional student and currently the Valedictorian of South Fulton. Additionally, Callie is enrolled in several Dual Enrollment classes that would not transfer back to South Fulton due to both high schools using different colleges for their Dual Enrollment programs. This complication would cause Callie to no longer be a Challenge Graduate and lose her Valedictorian status. Therefore, an exemption request is our only option.

We hope the members of TSSAA will grant Obion County Central High School and South Fulton High school an exemption from Article 1 Section 7 and allow the two high schools to form a cooperative agreement for the 2026-27 Girls Soccer season that would

Cooperative Program

Good Morning,

Mr. Reeves let me know that Republic High School was interested in forming a cooperative program with Mt. Juliet Christian Academy in football.

In order to form a cooperative program the partner school can not have had a team in the last two years. Currently, we are showing that Republic High School had a team in 2024-2025 and Mt. Juliet Christian Academy has had a team the past two years in 2024-2025 and 2025-2026.

Also, in our bylaws it states that Division II schools cannot host Division I schools. I am adding that section of our bylaws below.

Division I schools may host other Division I schools or Division II schools. Division II schools may only host other Division II schools.

If you have any further questions or need help with anything else, please let me know! I am adding my direct line below if you would rather talk over the phone.

Thanks,

Dear Mr. Bradshaw and Mr. Pratcher:

We received your request for a cooperative agreement in football under the Tennessee Secondary School Athletic Association (TSSAA). It is our understanding that Mt. Juliet Christian Academy wishes to host Republic High School.

We do not have the authority to grant this request. TSSAA bylaws state that Division II schools cannot host Division I schools in a cooperative agreement. Furthermore, Republic High School had a football program during the 2024-2025 school year. The program disbanded before the season ended. The language from Article II, Section 7 that applies is as follows:

> Two member schools may petition TSSAA annually for permission to have a cooperative program in any sport if one of the schools does not have that program and has not had that program for the last two years. Division I schools may host other Division I schools or Division II schools. Division II schools may only host other Division II schools.

If you would like the Board of Control to consider this request as an appeal at the August 17 meeting, please notify me no later than the end of this week so we can make the necessary arrangements to place it on the agenda.

I would be glad to discuss this in greater detail with you in advance of that meeting.

Sincerely,

Mark Reeves

RE: Support for One-Year Cooperative Agreement – Girls Basketball (2026–2027)

To Whom It May Concern,

On behalf of Grainger High School, I am writing to express our full support for Washburn School's request for a one-year cooperative agreement in girls basketball for the 2026–2027 school year.

Grainger High School believes that interscholastic athletics provide students with valuable opportunities to develop leadership, discipline, teamwork, and lifelong relationships. Whenever possible, we believe student-athletes should be afforded every reasonable opportunity to participate in educational-based athletics.

After discussions with the administration at Washburn School, it is clear that their current situation is the result of unusually low enrollment numbers rather than a lack of commitment to girls basketball. We understand that Washburn has made every effort to sustain its program while also considering the long-term health of both its middle school and high school programs. We also understand that this request is intended to address what appears to be a temporary circumstance for the 2026–2027 school year.

Grainger High School is willing to partner with Washburn School because we believe this cooperative agreement serves the best interests of the student-athletes involved. Approval of this request would allow young women who desire to continue participating in basketball to do so without requiring them to leave their school, their classmates, or the community that has supported them throughout their educational careers.

We recognize and respect the policies established by the TSSAA regarding cooperative programs. However, we respectfully ask that this unique circumstance be given thoughtful consideration. We believe approving this one-year agreement would demonstrate the Association's continued commitment to placing the educational and athletic interests of student-athletes first while preserving Washburn School's ability to rebuild and independently field a girls basketball team in the near future.

Grainger High School is committed to operating this cooperative program in full compliance with all TSSAA rules and expectations should approval be granted.

Thank you for your time and consideration of this request. We appreciate your dedication to providing meaningful athletic opportunities for student-athletes across Tennessee. If any additional information is needed, we would be happy to provide it.

Sincerely,

RE: Request for One-Year Cooperative Agreement – Girls Basketball (2026–2027)

To Whom It May Concern,

Washburn School respectfully requests consideration for a one-year cooperative agreement with Grainger High School in the sport of high school girls' basketball for the 2026–2027 school year.

Washburn School has made extensive efforts to maintain and grow participation in our girl's basketball program. Despite these efforts, we currently do not have sufficient numbers to safely and effectively field a high school girls' basketball team for the upcoming season. Washburn School currently has only 59 female students enrolled in grades 9–12, which has created significant participation challenges.

As a K–12 school, we do have the option of moving 8th grade students into the high school program. However, doing so would essentially eliminate our middle school girl's basketball program while also placing younger student-athletes into a level of competition for which many are not yet physically or emotionally prepared. We do not believe this would be in the best interest of our students or the long-term health of either program.

We understand and respect the TSSAA bylaw requiring a two-year period without fielding a team before a cooperative program request can typically be approved. However, we believe our current situation is temporary and unique. Based on current enrollment trends and anticipated participation, we feel this is likely only a one-year issue rather than a long-term inability to support girls' basketball at Washburn School.

Most importantly, we currently have student-athletes who wish to continue playing basketball while remaining enrolled at Washburn School. One of these students is a senior who has attended Washburn since kindergarten. She deeply values graduating from the school and community she has always called home and does not wish to transfer schools simply to participate in basketball during her final high school season. Granting this request would allow her and others the opportunity to continue competing while remaining at Washburn School.

For these reasons, we respectfully ask TSSAA to consider approving a one-year cooperative agreement between Washburn School and Grainger High School for girls basketball during the 2026–2027 season.

Thank you for your time, consideration, and continued support of student-athletes across Tennessee. We would be grateful for the opportunity to discuss this request further or provide any additional information needed.

Sincerely,

Dear TSSAA,

My name is Shay Shannon and I am the Assistant Principal and Athletic Director at Harriman High School. I am writing today to request a hardship to allow our Girls and Boys Soccer Programs to dissolve our co-op agreement with Oakdale High School and to join a co-op agreement with Rockwood High School. We have been the host school for several years but our numbers even with the co-op agreement have dipped and we are in a situation where we do not have the number of players required to play a game. We currently have nine girls that are eligible and ten boys. Rockwood High School is our only option to co-op with and it is closet to us geographically.

Rockwood High School has had a co-op with Midway High School in the past year. Midway has switched their co-op agreement with Kingston High School. This was done for geographical reasons as well. Kingston is much closer to Midway than Rockwood.

Both Harriman and Rockwood administration have been in contact with each other and agree that this would be the best option available for our student athletes. Our goal is to simply find a way to ensure that there is a season for both programs. The only negative aspect is that there is one female athlete from Oakdale that would not be able to have a season. However, with what we are proposing we are ensuring that many players are able to have a season. Without approval, Harriman High School will have to cancel soccer.

Thank you for taking this into consideration. Should any questions arise during conversations about this matter please feel free to call my cell phone, (731) 358-9495.

Sincerely,

Shay Shannon

TSSAA Board of Control:

We respectfully submit this request for consideration regarding the Battle in the Ville Girls' Lacrosse Tournament and ask that the tournament be permitted to take place on February 25-28, 2027, with all contests counting as official regular season games.

Since its inception in 2011, the Battle in the Ville has played a significant role in the growth and development of girls' lacrosse throughout Tennessee and the Mid-South region. What began as a local event has grown into one of the premier early-season tournaments in the Southeast, annually hosting more than 40 teams from Tennessee, Alabama, and Arkansas. The tournament provides meaningful competition, fosters relationships among programs, and showcases the continued expansion of girls' lacrosse in our region.

For many years, the tournament has been held during the last weekend of February and has become a staple event on the schedules of participating schools. Coaches and programs plan their seasons well in advance with the expectation that these games will count toward the regular season. In addition, the TSSAA girls' lacrosse calendars for the previous two seasons included a start date that allowed this tournament to be conducted as an official event.

The current 2026-27 calendar presents significant scheduling challenges. The weekend currently designated as the opening weekend of the season coincides with spring break for many private schools, while the following weekend falls during spring break for numerous public schools. As a result, participation would be greatly affected, creating substantial hardships for schools attempting to schedule competitive contests and limiting opportunities for student-athletes. Feedback from participating programs indicates that many schools would be unable or unwilling to attend if the tournament games cannot count as official regular season contests.

Therefore, we respectfully request that the TSSAA consider one of the following options:

1. Allow the Battle in the Ville Tournament to be held February 25-28, 2027.
2. Adjust the official start date of the 2026-27 girls' lacrosse season to the week of February 22, 2027, consistent with the previous two seasons.

Thank you for your time, consideration, and continued support of girls' lacrosse.

Respectfully,

Jeff Curtis

MEMPHIS, Tenn. - A Collierville man scammed investors out of more than $2,000,000, according to the Department of Justice (DOJ).

The DOJ said that 55-year-old Donald Wray Rodgers of Collierville pled guilty to one count of wire fraud related to his unregistered trading pool Three Bridges Trading Fund.

Authorities said that Rodgers lied to about 50 investors from across the country, providing false fund performance statements and inflated investments returns when, in fact, his fund was losing value each month and was worthless within a year.

Rodgers pled guilty to one count of wire fraud and will be sentenced in March of 2024, according to the DOJ.

TSSAA
Tennessee Secondary School Athletic Association

Re: Request for Reinstatement as Football Official and Baseball Umpire

Dear Members of the TSSAA Review Committee,

I am writing to respectfully request reinstatement as a football official and baseball umpire with the Tennessee Secondary School Athletic Association.

For many years, I took pride in serving student-athletes, coaches, and schools with professionalism, fairness, and respect for the integrity of the game. I understand that my past actions resulted in my removal from eligibility, and I take full responsibility for that chapter of my life.

Prior to my conviction, I spent twenty-five years building a career at Vining Sparks, where trust, accountability, and integrity were essential to my professional success. My Catholic faith has likewise been a guiding force throughout my life and became especially important during my recovery, incarceration, and continued efforts to rebuild. Those values continue to shape how I live, work, and serve others today.

I served time in federal prison and, through consistent accountability, effort, and demonstrated growth, earned early release after 18 months. While incarceration was the most difficult period of my life, it was also the most transformative. I used that time intentionally to rebuild my character, develop discipline, and prepare myself to return to society as a responsible and trustworthy individual.

During my incarceration, I earned and maintained a trusted job assignment, eventually becoming the team leader relied upon by correctional officers for inventory management and ensuring the work crew remained organized, productive, and accountable. That role required reliability, attention to detail, leadership under pressure, and integrity—qualities I do not take lightly.

I also committed myself fully to education and self-improvement. I completed every available FSA class and A.C.E. class and later had the opportunity to teach A.C.E. courses to fellow inmates. I worked directly with the Head of Education to develop two A.C.E. classes, reinforcing my belief in mentorship, structure, and positive influence.

These experiences strengthened my leadership skills and deepened my understanding of responsibility and service.

I also volunteered for the athletic leagues as a football and basketball referee and as a softball umpire. Being entrusted with those responsibilities while incarcerated reinforced the importance of fairness, accountability, and leadership by example.

Following my release, I have continued that commitment. I have returned to the workforce, rebuilt relationships, remained active in recovery, and dedicated myself to living a life worthy of trust. Throughout this journey, athletics and officiating have remained close to my heart. Even during difficult times, I never lost my respect for the game, the athletes, the coaches, and the responsibility that comes with wearing a striped shirt.

I am not asking the Board to ignore my past. Rather, I am asking you to consider the full measure of my life: decades of honorable work, years of service to Tennessee athletics, my acceptance of responsibility, my sustained sobriety, my faith-driven commitment to personal growth, and the positive contributions I continue to make today.

I understand that trust is earned, not granted. If given the opportunity to return to officiating, I would view that privilege as something to be honored every single Friday night. I would represent the TSSAA, my fellow officials, and the student-athletes of Tennessee with humility, professionalism, and gratitude.

Football has always taught accountability, perseverance, teamwork, and redemption. Those lessons have shaped my life both on and off the field. I respectfully ask for the opportunity to once again serve the young men and women, coaches, schools, and communities that make high school athletics in Tennessee so special.

Thank you for your time, consideration, and willingness to review my request. I would be grateful for the opportunity to once again serve the TSSAA, its schools, and its student-athletes with professionalism, humility, and respect for the rules and values of sport.

Respectfully,

Wray Rodgers

To Whom It May Concern,

My name is Tommy Ferrari, and I write this letter in support of Wray Rodgers' petition for reinstatement as a football official with the TSSAA. I have known Wray since high school, across decades and seasons of life — before success, through failure, and now during rebuilding. Our relationship was formed early, grounded in shared discipline, faith, and accountability.

During football season in high school, Wray and I attended Mass together on Friday mornings before school. That detail may seem small, but it speaks to something foundational: structure, reverence, and an understanding that character is shaped long before pressure arrives. Those early years matter when evaluating the man Wray is today.

I have never been someone who enabled Wray. I challenged him. I confronted him when discipline slipped and when character lagged behind talent. Those conversations were not easy, but Wray did not avoid them. He listened. That matters.

When Wray entered incarceration, many people talk about change. Few submit to it. From what I observed — through letters, conversations, and consistent follow-through — Wray chose the harder road. He accepted consequence without bitterness and used confinement as a proving ground for integrity. He did not posture or perform. He did the work quietly.

What stands out to me most is Wray's humility. Success did not humble him — loss did. And instead of hardening, he softened in the right places: patience, restraint, empathy, and responsibility. These are not traits you can fake for long, especially under pressure.

I believe in accountability. I also believe in earned redemption. Wray has demonstrated the latter through sustained conduct, not promises. Granting reinstatement would not excuse wrongdoing; it would acknowledge transformation.

I offer my full support without reservation.

Respectfully,

Tommy Ferrari

To Whom It May Concern,

My name is John Paul Kavin. I have known Wray Rodgers for many years and have witnessed both his strengths and his failures up close. I write this letter not to gloss over his mistakes, but to affirm the depth and sincerity of his rehabilitation.

In his new book No Shortcuts, Wray describes the moment when ambition outpaced discipline — when momentum replaced reflection. I was there during that season. What followed was painful, but necessary. Wray did not seek sympathy from me; he sought truth. He asked hard questions and accepted harder answers.

What changed Wray was not punishment alone — it was ownership. He stopped explaining and started examining. During his incarceration, he developed a consistency that had been missing before. He became deliberate. Measured. Grounded.

Since his release, I have seen him live under constraint with dignity. He honors rules. He respects structure. He understands that trust is rebuilt slowly, through behavior rather than words. That understanding cannot be taught; it must be learned.

I am confident that Wray poses no risk to public safety. On the contrary, he represents the kind of rehabilitated citizen our system hopes to produce — someone who has learned the cost of shortcuts and refuses to take them again.

I strongly support his request for reinstatement as a football official for the TSSAA..

Sincerely,

John Paul Kavin

To Whom It May Concern,

My name is P.J. McGee, and I am honored to write on behalf of Wray Rodgers. Our relationship, we met in AA, in Memphis, TN , was forged in environments where discipline, preparation, and accountability were not optional. Those standards shaped how I evaluate character.

Wray's failure was real. So was his response to it. What impressed me most was not remorse alone, but reform. During incarceration, Wray adopted the same mindset required in elite athletics: accept the score, return to fundamentals, and rebuild from the ground up.

He became a student again — of faith, of restraint, of responsibility. He listened. He learned. He did not blame systems or circumstances. That tells me more about his future than his past ever could.

Since release, Wray has chosen modest, compliant work rather than shortcuts. That choice reveals who he is now. People chasing image do not choose humility; people committed to integrity do.

I trust Wray. I would trust him with responsibility, mentorship, and leadership. Being a Football with the TSSAA would allow him to fully deploy those qualities in service to others.

Respectfully,

P.J. McGee

To Whom It May Concern,

My name is Jimmy Murphy. I have known Wray Rodgers since 1986 and have been a witness of success, failure, and rebuilding. Wray and I became close as our daughters played lacrosse together in Middle school and high school so I had a front row seat to his fall, and watched his growth in faith and accountability from the failure. I can attest that those lessons were learned thoroughly.

What distinguishes Wray is not that he fell, but that he did not excuse the fall. He confronted it. He accepted the penalty. He did not emerge angry or entitled. He emerged accountable.

I have seen Wray choose patience when impatience would have been easier, obedience when resistance would have felt justified, and consistency when no one was watching. These are markers of real change.

Wray's presence now is steady. Measured. Intentional. He understands that leadership begins with self-governance. That understanding makes him an asset — not a liability — to his community.

I offer this letter in full support of his petition for reinstatement as an official with the TSSAA and with confidence in the man he has become.

Sincerely,

Jimmy Murphy

To Whom It May Concern,

My name is George Chism, and I write this letter in support of Wray Rodgers' petition for reinstatement as an official with the TSSAA. I have known Wray since he was in middle school. I have witnessed his life across a long span of time — his early promise, his rise, his fall, and now his deliberate rebuilding. Very few people are able to see that entire arc. I have.

Because of that history, I do not judge Wray by a single chapter of his life. I evaluate him by patterns of behavior, and the pattern I see today is one of humility, accountability, and integrity rebuilt through action rather than words.

I currently serve as the assigner of officials for the Cross Check League through Grace Evangelical Church, where I am involved in our athletic ministry. In that role, I made the decision to extend trust to Wray by allowing him to serve as a basketball official within our program. This was not a symbolic gesture. It was a meaningful responsibility within a faith-based community that values structure, fairness, and accountability. Reinstatment would allow Wray to work as an official for the TSSAA as well.

He has approached officiating with gratitude, professionalism, and respect for authority. He shows up prepared, follows rules carefully, and understands the importance of doing things the right way — especially in a season where taking shortcuts could feel tempting.

What stands out most to me is that Wray does not ask for special treatment. He understands that trust must be earned and re-earned through consistency. His conduct reflects someone who has learned from consequence rather than resented it.

I believe deeply in accountability, but I also believe in grace that is extended wisely. The Wray I see today is not a risk to his community. He is an example of how rehabilitation can work when responsibility is embraced.

I offer this letter in full support of his request for full reinstatement as a football official with the TSSAA and with confidence in the man he is becoming.

Respectfully,

George Chism

Mark Reeves and TSSAA Board of Control Members:

My name is Don Williams, and I am the Assigning Officer for the Mid South Football Officials Association and have been a member of this organization and the TSSAA since 1979/1980 season. I have been the Assignor since 1993.

In those roles I came to know Wray Rodgers. Wray works for us and me as an official for many years. He has always been a very good official, who worked many regular season games for us at all levels and even worked playoff games for a few years. He was dependable and well-liked by his fellow officials and crew members, and we never had any complaints of him by our member schools, it's coaches or administrators.

Wray made a mistake in his professional career and has paid his debt to society for that. None of his crimes involved crimes against children, which is important to all of us.

We, as a local association, would welcome him back as a member and would support him being, once again, a member of the TSSAA.

There are times and places to keep people away for the children we serve, and this is NOT one of them.

Please put him back in good graces so we and he can get on with his life and past his mistakes of that past.

Thanks for your consideration on this matter.

For many years, I took pride in serving student-athletes, coaches, and schools with professionalism, fairness, and respect for the integrity of the game. I understand that my past actions resulted in my removal from eligibility, and I take full responsibility for that chapter of my life.

I served time in federal prison and, through consistent accountability, effort, and demonstrated growth, earned early release after 18 months. While incarceration was the most difficult period of my life, it was also the most transformative. I used that time intentionally to rebuild my character, develop discipline, and prepare myself to return to society as a responsible and trustworthy individual.

During my incarceration, I earned and maintained a trusted job assignment, eventually becoming the team leader relied upon by correctional officers for inventory management and ensuring the work crew remained organized, productive, and accountable. That role required reliability, attention to detail, leadership under pressure, and integrity - qualities I do not take lightly.

I also committed myself fully to education and self-improvement. I completed every available FSA class and A.C.E. class, and later had the opportunity to teach A.C.E. courses to fellow inmates. I worked directly with the Head of Education to develop two A.C.E. classes, reinforcing my belief in mentorship, structure, and positive influence. These experiences strengthened my leadership skills and deepened my understanding of responsibility and service.

I also volunteered for the athletic leagues as the football and basketball referee and the baseball umpire.

Today, I am focused, grounded, and committed to living with integrity in all areas of my life. I understand the responsibility that comes with officiating and umpiring - especially when working with student-athletes - and I do not take the trust of the Association lightly. I believe strongly that individuals can grow beyond their mistakes, and I strive every day to demonstrate that growth through my actions and conduct.

I respectfully ask the Board to consider my request for reinstatement. I would be grateful for the opportunity to once again serve the TSSAA, its schools, and its student-athletes with professionalism, humility, and respect for the rules and values of sport.

Thank you for your time and consideration.

Respectfully,
Wray Rodgers

2. Letter of Support - Don Williams

August 11, 2026

Mark Reeves and TSSAA Board of Control Members:

My name is Don Williams, and I am the Assigning Officer for the Mid South Football Officials Association and have been a member of this organization and the TSSAA since 1979/1980 season. I have been the Assignor since 1993.

In those roles I came to know Wray Rodgers. Wray works for us and me as an official for many years. He has always been a very good official, who worked many regular season games for us at all levels and even worked playoff games for a few years. He was dependable and well-liked by his fellow officials and crew members, and we never had any complaints of him by our member schools, it's coaches or administrators.

Wray made a mistake in his professional career and has paid his debt to society for that. None of his crimes involved crimes against children, which is important to all of us.

We, as a local association, would welcome him back as a member and would support him being, once again, a member of the TSSAA.

There are times and places to keep people away for the children we serve, and this is NOT one of them.

Please put him back in good graces so we and he can get on with his life and past his mistakes of that past.

Thanks for your consideration on this matter.

Don Williams
Assigning Officer

3. Letter of Support - George Chism

Dear Members of the TSSAA Board of Control:

My name is George Chism, and I write this letter in support of Wray Rodgers' request for reinstatement as a TSSAA official.

I have known Wray since middle school and have witnessed his life across a very long span of time - his years as a student-athlete, his professional success, his involvement in athletics and his community, his fall, and now his deliberate rebuilding. Very few people have had the opportunity to see that entire arc of his life. I have.

High school athletics and the TSSAA have also been an important part of my own life. I served for many years as a TSSAA official, and my father served as principal of Germantown High School. Because of those experiences, I understand the standards expected of an official and the responsibility that comes with representing the TSSAA, its schools, and its student-athletes.

Because of my long history with Wray, I do not judge him solely by the worst decisions he made during one chapter of his life. I look at the entire man and, particularly, at what he has done since accepting responsibility for his actions.

I currently serve at Grace Evangelical Church, where I am involved in our Crosscheck athletic ministry. In that role, I made the decision to extend trust to Wray by allowing him to return to the basketball court as an official.

That was not a symbolic gesture or something I did simply because Wray is an old friend. My own years as a TSSAA official taught me what is expected when someone puts on the stripes. Officiating places an individual in a position of responsibility and authority. It requires fairness, judgment, composure, knowledge of the rules, professionalism, and the ability to work appropriately with players, coaches, parents, and fellow officials.

Wray has justified the trust I placed in him.

Since returning to officiating, I have watched him approach every assignment with gratitude and professionalism. He shows up prepared, respects the rules and the authority under which he works, and understands that the game is about the athletes - not the official.

What stands out most to me is that Wray does not believe he is entitled to have everything he lost returned to him. He understands that trust has to be earned and re-earned through consistent conduct.

I believe deeply in accountability, but I also believe in wisely extending another opportunity when someone's actions demonstrate that it is warranted.

The Board does not have to simply take Wray's word that he can once again be trusted as an official. I have already made the decision to place that trust in him within our athletic program, and I have had the opportunity to observe what he has done with it.

Based upon what I have personally witnessed, and based upon my own years of experience as a TSSAA official, I believe Wray can once again serve student-athletes, coaches, schools, fellow officials, and the TSSAA with professionalism, fairness, humility, and integrity.

I respectfully support Wray Rodgers' reinstatement as a TSSAA official and would be comfortable having him on the court or field representing an organization with which I am associated.

Thank you for your consideration.

Respectfully,
George Chism
Former TSSAA Official

4. Letter of Support - Jeff Cagle

Dear Board of Control:

Thank you for considering the reinstatement of Wray Rodgers. I have known Wray since he was 10 years old and friends with my little brother. He has always been a great supporter of athletics at Germantown High School. In addition to being a great athlete during his playing days.

As an official, he has always been outstanding. He has had great integrity on the field and I believe would continue to be an asset if he were to be reinstated.

Thank you again for considering,

Jeff Cagle

5. Letter of Support - Conn Ellis

Dear Members of the TSSAA Board of Control:

I am writing a letter of consideration for Wray Rogers.

I have worked with Wray for multiple years on both the football field and basketball court. Wray has always acted with professionalism as an official. Wray established himself very quickly as one of the officials that you wanted on your crew.

I hope that you consider Wray for reinstatement as a TSSAA official.

Sincerely,
Conn Ellis

6. Letter of Support - Tommy Ferrari

Dear Members of the TSSAA Board of Control:

My name is Tommy Ferrari, and I write in support of Wray Rodgers' request for reinstatement as a TSSAA official. I have known Wray since high school, across decades and many seasons of life - before success, through failure, and now during rebuilding.

Our relationship was formed early and was grounded in shared discipline, faith, athletics, and accountability. During football season in high school, Wray and I attended Mass together on Friday mornings before school. That may seem like a small detail, but it speaks to a relationship that goes back to our days as student-athletes and to the values that surrounded us.

I have never been someone who enabled Wray. I have challenged him and confronted him when I believed he needed to hear difficult truths. Those conversations were not always easy, but Wray did not avoid them.

What happened later in Wray's life was serious, and I do not minimize it. Neither does he. What I have witnessed since then is a man who has accepted responsibility and worked deliberately to rebuild his life and character.

During his incarceration and since returning home, I have watched Wray become more humble, patient, accountable, and focused on serving others. Success did not humble Wray - loss did. Instead of allowing that loss to make him bitter, I have watched him use it to become a better man.

I believe strongly in accountability. I also believe people should be evaluated by what they do after accepting responsibility for their failures.

Athletics have been part of Wray's life since I first knew him. I believe he understands that being a TSSAA official is a privilege carrying responsibilities to student-athletes, coaches, schools, fellow officials, and the Association itself.

Based upon the man I have known for decades and the man I see today, I support Wray's request for reinstatement and believe he would treat another opportunity to officiate with gratitude, humility, professionalism, and respect.

I offer my support without reservation.

Respectfully,
Tommy Ferrari

7. Letter of Support - John Paul Kavin

Dear Members of the TSSAA Board of Control:

My name is John Paul Kavin. I have known Wray Rodgers for many years and have witnessed both his strengths and his failures up close. I write not to gloss over his mistakes, but to affirm the depth and sincerity of the rehabilitation I have witnessed.

I was present during periods of Wray's life when ambition began to outpace discipline. What followed was painful but necessary. Wray did not seek sympathy from me; he sought truth. He asked hard questions and learned to accept hard answers.

What changed Wray was not punishment alone - it was ownership. He stopped explaining and started examining. During his incarceration, I watched him develop a consistency and humility that had been missing during the period that led to his conviction.

Since returning home, I have watched him continue to live under significant structure and accountability. He honors rules, respects authority, and understands that trust is rebuilt slowly through behavior rather than words.

That is particularly important when considering his request to return to TSSAA officiating. Officials occupy positions of trust. They are expected to exercise judgment, follow rules, treat participants fairly, and represent their association professionally.

I believe Wray understands those responsibilities today at a much deeper level than he ever has before.

I would trust Wray with responsibility, mentorship, and leadership. I believe he can once again be trusted to serve athletics responsibly and professionally.

For those reasons, I respectfully support Wray Rodgers' request for reinstatement as a TSSAA official and ask the Board to consider giving him the opportunity to earn that trust again.

Sincerely,
John Paul Kavin

8. Letter of Support - P.J. McGee

Dear Members of the TSSAA Board of Control:

My name is P.J. McGee, and I am honored to write in support of Wray Rodgers' request for reinstatement as a TSSAA official.

My relationship with Wray was forged in environments where discipline, preparation, teamwork, and accountability were not optional. Those standards continue to shape how I evaluate character today.

Wray's failure was real. So was his response to it.

What impressed me most was not remorse alone, but reform. During incarceration, Wray adopted the same fundamental mindset required in athletics: accept the score, take responsibility, return to fundamentals, and rebuild from the ground up.

He became a student again - of faith, restraint, responsibility, and accountability. He listened. He learned. Most importantly, he stopped looking elsewhere for responsibility and accepted his own.

Since returning home, I have watched Wray continue that process. He understands today that trust cannot be demanded simply because someone has completed a punishment. Trust has to be earned through consistent conduct.

That principle has particular meaning in officiating. An official must respect the rules, exercise judgment, remain composed under pressure, treat competitors fairly, and understand that the game is about the student-athletes - not the official.

I believe Wray understands those responsibilities and would approach another opportunity to officiate with tremendous gratitude and humility.

I trust Wray. I would trust him with responsibility, mentorship, and leadership. I respectfully ask the Board of Control to consider giving him the opportunity to once again serve the game and the student-athletes he cares so deeply about.

I support his request for reinstatement.

Respectfully,
P.J. McGee

9. Letter of Support - Jimmy Murphy

Dear Members of the TSSAA Board of Control:

My name is Jimmy Murphy, and I write in support of Wray Rodgers' request for reinstatement as a TSSAA official.

I have known Wray through seasons of success, failure, and rebuilding. Because of that history, I have had the opportunity to see him at some of the highest points of his life as well as some of the lowest.

I do not write this letter to minimize what Wray did or the consequences of his actions. What distinguishes Wray to me is not that he fell, but what he has done since that fall. He confronted what he did, accepted responsibility for it, served his sentence, and began the much more difficult process of rebuilding his life and the trust he had lost.

I have watched Wray choose patience when impatience would have been easier, obedience when resistance would have felt justified, and consistency when no one was watching. Those are the things that convince me his change is genuine.

Today, Wray is steady, measured, and intentional. He understands that leadership begins with self-governance and that trust cannot simply be requested - it has to be earned through actions over time.

I believe those lessons are particularly relevant to his request to return to officiating.

A TSSAA official is entrusted with responsibility. Officials must follow rules even when under pressure, exercise sound judgment, treat both sides fairly, remain composed when their decisions are challenged, and remember that the game belongs to the student-athletes.

I believe Wray understands those responsibilities today at a deeper level because of everything he has experienced.

Athletics have been an important part of Wray's life for decades, and I know how much returning to the field would mean to him. But I also know he does not view reinstatement as something he is owed. He understands that it would be a privilege and an opportunity that he would have to honor every time he put on the uniform.

Based upon the man I have known over the years and, especially, the man I have watched emerge through adversity, I believe Wray would represent the TSSAA, its schools, fellow officials, coaches, and student-athletes with professionalism, humility, fairness, and respect.

I respectfully ask the Board of Control to consider giving Wray the opportunity to once again serve as a TSSAA official.

I support his request for reinstatement with confidence in the man he has become.

Sincerely,
Jimmy Murphy

SUPPLEMENTAL STATEMENT OF WRAY RODGERS

Anticipated Questions and Responses
Request for Reinstatement as a TSSAA Official

To the Members of the TSSAA Board of Control:

I prepared the following responses in anticipation of questions the Board might reasonably have regarding my request for reinstatement. My preference is to appear before the Board and answer those questions directly. If circumstances related to my Bureau of Prisons travel restrictions prevent a live appearance and the Board is unable to accommodate participation by telephone or video, I respectfully submit these written responses so that the Board may still have the benefit of my answers.

I recognize the seriousness of my conviction, my continuing responsibility for it, and the fact that I remain in Bureau of Prisons prerelease custody on home confinement. I do not submit these responses as a substitute for accountability or as an argument that I am entitled to reinstatement. I submit them in the interest of complete transparency and to answer, as directly as I can, the difficult questions I would expect the Board to ask me.

1. Why should this Board trust you after you committed fraud?

Answer: Sir, I understand why you would not simply trust me today. I forfeited the right to expect that. What I can offer you is the record of how I lived before those decisions, complete ownership of what I did during that period, and - most importantly - how I have chosen to live since. I cannot talk my way back into being trustworthy. I have to live my way back into it. I am asking the Board to look at my actions over time and decide whether I have earned the opportunity to begin rebuilding that trust as a TSSAA official.

2. You stated that you were released after 18 months. Are you still serving your federal sentence?

Answer: Yes. I want to be completely clear about that. I was released from the federal prison facility after 18 months into Bureau of Prisons prerelease custody. I am still serving my federal sentence and am currently on home confinement under BOP supervision and requirements.

3. Why wasn't your current BOP home-confinement status clearly stated in your original reinstatement request?

Answer: It should have been clearer. When I wrote that I had been released after 18 months, I was referring to my release from the federal prison facility. In my mind, I understood that I remained in BOP prerelease custody, but while preparing for the hearing I recognized that someone could reasonably read the wording differently. As soon as I recognized that, I contacted Mr. Reeves before the meeting and clarified my status. I did not want there to be any ambiguity.

4. If you are still serving your sentence, why shouldn't the Board wait until your sentence is completely over before considering reinstatement?

Answer: That is a perfectly reasonable position for the Board to consider. I am not entitled to reinstatement today. I have been permitted to return to work and to officiating outside the TSSAA while under significant structure and accountability, and I am asking the Board to evaluate my conduct as it exists today. If the Board believes more time is necessary, I will respect that decision. I am asking you to consider whether my actions demonstrate that I can responsibly serve student-athletes now.

5. Why should a convicted felon be allowed to officiate high school students?

Answer: I understand the concern. My conviction is serious and I will carry it with me for the rest of my life. The question I respectfully ask the Board to consider is whether the nature of my offense, my history as an official, and my conduct since accepting responsibility demonstrate that I can safely and responsibly serve student-athletes. My offense did not involve children or misconduct in athletics. That does not erase what I did. I am asking to be judged on the entire record and on whether I can fulfill the responsibilities of an official today.

6. Fraud involves repeated choices. How do you account for that?

Answer: I do not describe what I did as one mistake. I made conscious decisions to conceal the fact that my trading was failing. Fear of admitting failure and the arrogant belief that I could trade my way out of the problem led me to make additional dishonest decisions. Those were my choices. Understanding that has been an important part of my rehabilitation because I cannot change behavior I refuse to describe honestly.

7. Didn't you steal people's retirement money?

Answer: I understand why someone hearing about an investment fraud might assume that. I never want to minimize what any investor lost. The investors in my fund were qualified investors, and I also lost my own money in the fund. But regardless of anyone's financial capacity, what I did was wrong. Beyond money, I damaged people's trust in me and potentially their trust in financial professionals. That harm is real, and I remain responsible for restitution.

8. Are you paying restitution only because the court ordered you to?

Answer: Yes, the restitution is court ordered, and I understand why someone could call complying with it the bare minimum. I take the obligation seriously because it is one concrete action I can perform consistently to return at least part of what was lost. I make payments and document them as required. I do not present court-ordered restitution as proof that I deserve reinstatement; I present it as one part of living responsibly after what I did.

9. What has actually changed about you?

Answer: The biggest change is that I no longer believe I can fix everything myself or hide failure until I make it disappear. During the period that led to my conviction, fear and pride drove my decisions. Today my faith, recovery, accountability, and the structure under which I live require me to be honest early, ask for help, accept consequences, and do the next right thing even when it is uncomfortable. I try to demonstrate that through work, recovery, service, restitution, and compliance - not simply by saying I have changed.

10. Why do you deserve a second chance?

Answer: I do not believe I am entitled to one. The student-athletes, schools, coaches, officials, and this Board do not owe me a second chance. I am respectfully asking for one. I believe my conduct before my offense, my complete responsibility for what I did, and my conduct since provide a basis for the Board to consider extending that opportunity. If you do, I understand it is a privilege that has to be honored every time I put on the uniform.

11. What does reinstating you do for the TSSAA? This isn't about making Wray Rodgers whole.

Answer: You are exactly right. The TSSAA is not here to make Wray Rodgers whole. A student-athlete gets an experienced official who will prepare, know the rules, treat both teams fairly, hustle to be in position, remain composed under pressure, and understand that the game belongs to the athletes. My local assigning officer has said the association would welcome me back. I believe I can again contribute as a dependable official, but the Board must decide whether that contribution justifies extending the privilege.

12. What would you say to a parent who learns that the official working their child's game is a convicted felon?

Answer: I have wrestled with that question. I cannot tell a parent that they are wrong to have concerns. I would tell them that the Board knew my history, considered the nature of my offense, considered my conduct before and after it, and decided I could be trusted to officiate. Then it would be my responsibility through my behavior on that field to justify the Board's decision every single time.

13. What if a coach or parent attacks your character during a game because of your conviction?

Answer: I would handle it the same way I am expected to handle any emotional or inappropriate conduct as an official: remain composed, apply the rules, and never make the situation about me. My history does not give me permission to react emotionally or retaliate. If anything, I understand that I may have to demonstrate even greater restraint because I chose actions that made my background a legitimate subject of scrutiny.

14. Why should we believe you will follow TSSAA rules when you failed to follow federal law?

Answer: That is a hard but fair question. There is no answer I can give that erases the contradiction. I violated rules far more serious than an officiating rule. What I can point to is my conduct since: living under BOP requirements, obtaining permission for my movements and outside activities, working, remaining active in recovery, meeting restitution obligations, and returning to officiating outside the TSSAA under other people's trust. Ultimately, the Board has to judge my present conduct rather than accept a promise from me.

15. Are you asking us to overlook your conviction because you were a good official before?

Answer: No. I am asking you to consider my prior record, not use it to erase my conviction. My years as an official show what I was capable of contributing, while my conviction shows that I was capable of serious failures in judgment and honesty. Both are part of my record. The question is whether my conduct since demonstrates that I can responsibly return to the role.

16. You had a successful 25-year career. Why did you throw it away?

Answer: I have asked myself that question many times. After a long period of professional success, I struck out on my own and encountered failure in a way I had never handled before. Instead of admitting that failure, fear and pride took over. I convinced myself I was good enough to fix the trading losses and that no one would ever know. That thinking was arrogant and dishonest, and every attempt to hide the problem made it worse. I understand today that admitting failure early would have cost me far less than trying to conceal it.

17. Why are you pursuing officiating while still under BOP supervision?

Answer: Because officiating has always been service as much as employment for me, and because I have been permitted to participate in officiating outside the TSSAA while complying with my supervision requirements. I wanted to come before the proper authority, disclose where I am, and allow this Board to decide whether reinstatement is appropriate now. If the answer is not yet, I will respect it.

18. What have you done since incarceration that shows rehabilitation?

Answer: During incarceration I worked in a position of responsibility, completed available programming, taught continuing-education classes, participated in recovery-related service, and volunteered as an official in athletic leagues. Since returning to the community, I have worked, remained active in recovery, helped connect people - including people returning from incarceration - with employment, continued my restitution obligations, complied with BOP requirements, and officiated basketball and baseball through organizations outside the TSSAA with the appropriate permissions.

19. What happens if the Board says no?

Answer: I will be disappointed because officiating means a great deal to me, but I will respect the Board's decision. I have a life for which I am deeply grateful, and I will continue working, serving, paying restitution, participating in recovery, and rebuilding trust regardless of the outcome. Reinstatement would be a tremendous privilege, but my commitment to living differently cannot depend upon whether this Board gives me something I want.

20. What happens if the Board says yes?

Answer: I will be grateful, and then the real responsibility begins. Every assignment becomes an opportunity to justify the trust the Board placed in me. Whether it is a varsity Friday night, a playoff game, or a middle-school contest, I will prepare and work it with the same professionalism and respect. I understand that another opportunity would not erase my past; it would give me a responsibility to conduct myself in a way that honors the Board's decision.

21. Why does officiating matter so much to you?

Answer: Athletics have been part of my life since I was a child. They taught me discipline, teamwork, preparation, handling success and failure, and being part of something larger than myself. Officiating allowed me to stay connected to those lessons and give something back to sports that gave me so much. I love Friday night football, but this is not just about Friday nights. A Tuesday middle-school game deserves the same effort and respect from me because it matters to those kids.

22. Is there anything else about your criminal sentence or current status that this Board needs to know?

Answer: I want the Board to have an accurate picture. I remain in BOP prerelease custody on home confinement and must comply with its requirements. My travel and outside activities require appropriate permission. I also have continuing restitution obligations. If there is any specific aspect of my sentence or supervision the Board wants clarified, I will answer it directly. I do not want my reinstatement to rest on an incomplete understanding of my circumstances.

23. Why should the Board take the risk?

Answer: I recognize that reinstatement asks the Board to exercise judgment, and I cannot tell you there is no reputational concern. What I can say is that experienced officials and assigners who know both my history and my work have put their names behind my request, and others have already trusted me to officiate again and observed my conduct. I am asking the Board to weigh that evidence along with my offense and current circumstances. I understand that the decision and the responsibility belong to you.

24. Give us one reason, in one sentence, why we should reinstate you.

Answer: Because I believe my actions since accepting responsibility demonstrate that I can once again be trusted to serve student-athletes with fairness, professionalism, humility, and respect - and I am prepared to spend every assignment proving that trust was well placed.

Closing Statement

Members of the Board, thank you for taking the time to consider my request and these responses.

I understand that reinstatement is not something I am owed. The TSSAA does not exist to make Wray Rodgers whole. Your responsibility is to Tennessee schools, coaches, officials and, most importantly, the student-athletes you serve.

I cannot erase what I did, and I cannot ask the people I hurt to forget it. Some doors in my life have been permanently closed because of my actions, and I understand that this Board could decide that TSSAA officiating should be one of them. I will respect that decision if that is where you arrive.

But I respectfully ask you to consider the entire record - my years of service as an official, the seriousness of my wrongdoing, my acceptance of responsibility, the way I have tried to live since, and the judgment of the experienced officials, assigners, friends, and community leaders who have placed their names behind my request.

The young person competing in a TSSAA game does not owe me a second chance. What that student-athlete deserves is an official who prepares, knows the rules, treats both sides fairly, hustles to be in the best possible position, remains composed under pressure, and understands that the game belongs to the athletes.

I cannot talk my way back into being trustworthy. I have to live my way back into it.

I respectfully ask the Board for the opportunity to continue earning back the trust I lost while once again serving the TSSAA, its schools, and its student-athletes. If you give me that opportunity, I will be deeply grateful for it and will understand the responsibility that comes with it.

Respectfully,

Wray Rodgers
