		Rescinds: 4.406	Issued:

PURPOSE

Morgan County Schools provides students access to electronic resources that promote educational excellence, sharing of information, innovative instruction, and online communication to enhance learners' ability to live and work in the 21st century.

- The purpose of these guidelines is to ensure that users recognize the procedures which the school imposes on their use of the MCS network (wired and wireless), MCS PODNet, the Internet, e-mail, and release of student information.
- They are provided to help understand what constitutes acceptable behavior with the use of technology.
- These rules and guidelines detail acceptable use of the networks, the Internet, and electronic information resources anywhere. All members of the MCS community (students and staff) are expected to comply with these standards.

ELECTRONIC RESOURCES:

These procedures are written to promote positive and effective digital citizenship among students and staff and are based on the four guiding principles of the Children's Internet Protection Act (CIPA): respect, privacy, sharing, and safety.

Digital citizenship represents more than technology literacy. Successful, technologically fluent digital citizens live safely and civilly in an increasingly digital world. They recognize that information posted on the Internet is public and permanent and can have a long-term impact on an individual's life and career. They also recognize that expectations for student and staff behavior online are no different than face-to-face interactions.

Monitoring: Review: Annually, in April	Descriptor Term: Use of Personal Communication Devices and Electronic Devices	Descriptor Code: 6.312	Issued Date: 09/03/19
		Rescinds: 6.312	Issued: 07/01/14

1 USE OF PERSONALLY OWNED DEVICES (PODS) IN SCHOOL

2 A personally owned device (POD) is a device that has the capability of connecting to a local or cellular
3 network (wired or wireless). A POD can be (but is not limited to) a camera, recorder, phone, player,
4 game console, or computer with or without Internet capabilities. Such PODs may include (but are not
5 limited to): CD/DVD players, iPads, iPods, MP3 players, tablets, game consoles, netbooks,
6 laptop/notebook computers. PODS may be stored in backpacks, purses or personal carry-alls. The 7 presence or use of a POD must in no way be a disruption to the learning environment.

8 Use by students in Grades PreK-K-5th

9 Students may possess PODs during the school day. However, the POD must be in the “off” or “silent”
10 mode and must be kept in a backpack, purse or similar personal carry-all and may not be used unless 11 the principal or the principal’s designee grants a student permission to do so. The principal or teacher
12 may specifically grant permission for a student to use a POD during class time for a specific academic 13 purpose or at other times for other purposes that the principal deems appropriate.

14 Use by students in Grades 6th through 12th

15 Students may possess PODs during the school day. The devices may be used on school grounds before
16 8:30 a.m. and after 3:30 p.m. They may also be used during lunch periods, and during class change
17 times. At all other times the POD must be in the “silent” mode. The principal or teacher may grant a 18 student permission to use a POD during class.

19 Violations

20 A POD used outside these parameters may result in confiscation of the POD until it can be released
21 directly to the student’s parent or guardian. A student who possesses or uses a POD in violation of this
22 policy is subject to related disciplinary action. Continued violation of this policy will result in loss of 23 POD privileges. Additionally, students may lose POD privileges for any policy violation that is related
24 to or is the result of the use of a POD whether or not the POD was used within the parameters of this 25 policy.

26 Use of a POD or electronic device to bully, harass, or intimidate others will be subject to related
27 disciplinary action. Using a POD or other electronic device for any illicit activity including but not
28 limited to take, disseminate, transfer, or share obscene, pornographic, lewd, or otherwise illegal
29 images, photographs, or similar material whether by electronic data transfer or otherwise may

1 constitute a crime under State and/or Federal law. Any student taking disseminating, transferring,
2 possessing or sharing obscene pornographic, lewd, illegal, or otherwise inappropriate images or
3 photographs of other students, or any other individual, particularly underage, at school, on a school bus
4 or while attending any school event or activity will be subject to the disciplinary procedures of the 5 school district and reported to law enforcement and other appropriate State or Federal agencies.

RETAINER AGREEMENT

The National Legal Foundation (NLF) is a public interest law firm and, as such, is a tax-exempt organization as designated by the Internal Revenue Service. Contributions to the NLF are charitable deductions for tax purposes.

The NLF undertakes representation of the client upon the following basis:

- 1) The NLF agrees to represent the client without charging for the legal services of its staff. However, the client is encouraged to reimburse costs and expenses incurred by the NLF on behalf of the client (for example, filing fees paid to a court, transcript costs, and travel expenses). Furthermore, the client and/or other individuals or organizations interested in the client's case may, subject to paragraph 8, voluntarily contribute to the NLF to help cover the costs and services for which the NLF does not charge.
- 2) The NLF shall have management, overview, and control of the legal matter in which the NLF has been retained, and an NLF attorney shall be designated as lead counsel.
- 3) The NLF's representation of the client may or may not require defending a lawsuit. The client agrees that should a lawsuit be filed—subject only to other provisions of this agreement—the client will continue to be represented by the NLF for the duration of the litigation, including any mediation, arbitration, appeals, remands, and other stages of the case. The NLF, subject to court requirements, shall have final decision-making authority regarding mediation, arbitration, and appeals.
- 4) The NLF shall have final decision-making authority regarding legal claims and defenses asserted on behalf of the client in this matter.
- 5) The NLF cannot, and the client understands that the NLF does not, guarantee success in the matter undertaken.
- 6) The NLF may engage associate counsel to assist in the handling of this matter. No other law firms or attorneys will represent the client in this matter unless agreed to in writing by the NLF. No associated counsel may charge the client for his legal services unless agreed to in writing by both the client and the NLF.
- 7) All matters of publicity regarding this matter must be directed by and through the NLF. The client understands that certain remarks or comments about this matter by the client, though well-intentioned, could be detrimental to the client's legal position, threatening the client's chances for ultimate success.
- 8) Although the NLF's legal services are provided at no cost to the client, the client understands that the NLF may be entitled to recover attorney's fees, costs, and expenses from other sources, including the opposing party or parties. The client agrees to promptly execute all necessary documents and to assist in every manner necessary for the NLF to recover any such fees, costs, and expenses that may be awarded. The client further agrees that he will not make any claim upon any fees, costs, and expenses that may be awarded. The client also agrees that should any checks for fees, costs, and/or expenses be made out to the client, the client shall endorse over any such checks to the NLF.

- 9) The client will render to the NLF such cooperation and assistance as may be needed to prepare this matter for hearing, trial, mediation, arbitration, or appeal.
- 10) The client understands that, as a non-profit organization, the NLF relies on voluntary contributions in order to provide its services free of charge; and the client, therefore, agrees that the NLF may publicize this matter to raise funds for the on-going work of the NLF. The client will not give any other attorney, law firm, or organization permission to raise funds in relation to this matter. Should the client learn of any third parties raising funds in relation to this matter, the client shall notify the NLF immediately. As long as fund raising efforts by third parties accurately describe the relationship between the client and the NLF and the money raised actually is contributed to the NLF, the NLF will encourage such activities. Similarly, the NLF may, in its discretion, affirmatively encourage such activities by authorized individuals or groups.
- 11) This agreement may be terminated by the client only for good faith reasons and only upon sixty (60) days' written notice to the NLF.
- 12) This agreement may be terminated by the NLF only for good faith reasons and only upon written notice (with court approval, if required) to the clients.

The NLF represents the clients for the following purposes:

1. Advising Morgan County Public Schools(MCPS) regarding the letters received from from the Freedom from Religion Foundation as of this date that claim MCPS has violated the Establishment Clause, and regarding any similar letters received in the future from and the Freedom from Religion Foundation or other organizations. any other organization; and
2. Defending MCPS against any lawsuits that may be filed regarding such putative Establishment Clause violations.

This agreement is executed in duplicate, and each shall be considered an original.

Re: 4/20/21 FFRF Letter to Director Treece

Dear Mr. Summers:

Thanks very much for your recent email that included a copy of a letter dated April 20, 2021 from Freedom from Religion Foundation (“FFRF”) to David Treece, Director of Schools, Morgan County. In this letter, FFRF again challenges opening prayer before School Board meetings, now adding complaints and allegations about a Kids Prayer Service and Putting Prayers into Action Clothes Pick-Up event, the coaching staff of the Wartburg Middle School football team participating in a student prayer circle, the supposed planning and promotion of baccalaureate events, and the display and maintenance of religious signs. We address each of these challenges individually.

I. Prayer Before School Board Meetings

As you will recall, about a year ago FFRF wrote you a letter objecting to the Board’s practice of opening school board meetings with prayer. FFRF claimed that this practice was unconstitutional, and, according to FFRF’s letter, you agreed to stop prayer at Board meetings. Subsequently, the Congressional Prayer Caucus Foundation urged you to ignore FFRF’s demand based upon the history and tradition of opening government meetings with prayer and recent Supreme Court precedents that permitted prayer before municipal meetings. CPCF noted that the Supreme Court through a number of precedents has permitted prayer to solemnize legislative meetings and that school board meetings are chiefly legislative in nature.

After CPCF’s letter, the Board adopted “Policy 4.806: Public Prayer or Non-Theistic Expressions at Municipal Meetings, Events, and Other Gatherings” (Nov. 30, 2020). We believe this is constitutional and, based on our current understanding of facts, would defend it. However, there is mixed caselaw on this point. In Town of Greece v. Galloway, 572 U.S. 565 (2014), the Supreme Court declared opening prayers at Town Council meetings constitutional. Since then, two federal courts of appeals have addressed the issue of whether school board prayers are like town council prayers, and thus constitutional, or like school prayers, and thus unconstitutional. Unfortunately, these two courts came to contradictory conclusions.

FFRF had a victory at the Ninth Circuit in Freedom from Religion Found., Inc. v. Chino Valley Unified Sch. Dist. Bd. of Educ., 896 F.3d 1132 (9th Cir. 2018), in which the Ninth Circuit ruled that school board prayer was like school prayer, and thus unconstitutional. However, a school district had a victory in Am. Humanist Ass'n v. McCarty, 851 F.3d 521 (5th Cir. 2017), in which the Fifth Circuit held that school board prayer is legislative prayer, just like town council prayer, even when middle school and elementary school students offer the prayers. We believe the Fifth Circuit analysis is correct.

II. Kids Prayer Service and Posting of Events on Facebook Page

From a brief Internet search and the photos and screens shots that accompanied FFRF's letter, we understand that Oakdale School PTO (Parent Teacher Organization) held a prayer service at the school flag pole on August 2, 2020. This event was held during summer break, and it was held after a school open house that presumably was for new and returning students, and their parents. Attendance at the open house was presumably voluntary (please correct us if we are wrong), and certainly attendance at the prayer service was voluntary.

Some of the issues raised by FFRF are not governed by clearly established caselaw, despite FFRF's citation of cases that stand for propositions of law that are so broad as to be unhelpful. The analysis will turn on how close the facts of your situations match the facts of prior litigation, even when such cases exist.

It is our understanding that the PTO is a private organization. If so, the PTO must be allowed equal access to school property and avenues of communication that all other private groups have access to. (There are a few nuances relating to the type of "forum" that the school has opened that we do not see implicated by the facts as we understand them).

It is a bit difficult to tell from what we have been provided whether all communications were from the PTO or whether any were from the school. If the latter, moving forward, the communications should be only from the PTO. There are innumerable cases standing for the proposition that flyer distributions to children by private organizations for religious events are constitutional, provided they occur on an equal basis as the distribution of other organizations flyers. This is true whether the “flyers” are physical flyers or electronic “flyers” posted on social media.

Because it seems likely that teachers and perhaps other staff will be present at an event sponsored by the PTO, it is important that the teachers and other staff participate in their private capacity, not their government employee capacity. This distinction matters greatly under current precedent, so it needs to be clear that teachers are acting in their private capacities at such events:

a citizen who works for the government is nonetheless still a citizen. The First Amendment limits a public employer's ability to leverage the employment relationship to restrict, incidentally or intentionally, the liberties employees enjoy in their capacities as private citizens. So long as employees are speaking as citizens about matters of public concern, they must face only those speech restrictions that are necessary for their employers to operate efficiently and effectively.

Garcetti v. Ceballos, 547 U.S. 410, 411 (2006) (citations omitted).

The United States Department of Education has explained this concept as it applies to public school employees and its guidance is relevant here and to some sections below:

When acting in their official capacities as representatives of the State, teachers, school administrators, and other school employees are prohibited by the First Amendment from encouraging or discouraging prayer, and from actively participating in such activity with students. Teachers, however, may take part in religious activities where the overall context makes clear that they are not participating in their official capacities. Teachers also may take part in religious activities such as prayer even during their workday at a time when it is permissible to engage in other private conduct such as making a personal telephone call. Before school or during lunch, for example, teachers may meet with other teachers for prayer or Bible study to the same extent that they may engage in other conversation or nonreligious activities. Similarly, teachers may participate in their personal capacities in privately sponsored baccalaureate ceremonies or similar events.

U.S. Department of Education, Guidance on Constitutionally Protected Prayer and Religious Expression in Public Elementary and Secondary Schools, January 16, 2020, https://www2.ed.gov/policy/gen/guid/religionandschools/prayer_guidance.html.

Before moving on, let me address a few issues not raised by FFRF that are very similar, and may be of interest to you. First, if the flyers had been distributed by a student club, e.g., a Bible club, the equal access principles would be the same: its flyers would have to be treated the same as those of all other non-curriculum-related clubs' flyers.

Second, if the prayer at the flag pole had been part of the annual "See You at the Pole" event, the analysis would be different. This event is intended by its organizer to be student-led and student-initiated. Most schools honor this request. School staff may, of course, attend in a supervisory capacity, but complications can arise when supervisory staff otherwise participate in the event by, for example, merely visibly bowing in prayer. If "See You at the Pole" events are, or become, an issue for MCPS, we can help you with those, as well.

"See You at the Pole" events are specifically protected by Tennessee law as are many of the other activities discussed in this letter:

Students may organize religious student groups, religious clubs, "see you at the pole" gatherings, or other religious gatherings before, during, and after school to the same extent that students are permitted to organize other noncurricular student activities and groups. Religious groups shall be given the same access to school facilities for assembling as is given to other noncurricular groups without discrimination based on the religious content of the students' expression. If student groups that meet for nonreligious activities are permitted to advertise or announce meetings of their groups, then the LEA may not discriminate against groups that meet for prayer or other religious speech. An LEA may disclaim school sponsorship of noncurricular groups and events in a manner that neither favors nor disfavors groups that meet to engage in expressions of faith or religious speech.

Tenn. Code Ann. §49-6-1805.

III. Putting Prayers into Action Clothes Pick-Up Event

From the screen shot provided by FFRF, it appears that this event was organized and conducted by another private organization, the Morgan-Scott Project, at a private venue (). If this is the case, the analysis is the same as just explained for the prayer event, both with regard to publicity and teacher and staff involvement

May 20, 2021

IV. Coaches Praying with Students at a Football Game

FFRF relies in its letter upon Santa Fe Independent School Dist. v. Doe, 530 U.S. 290 (2000), Board of Education of the Westside Community School v. Mergens, 496 U.S. 226 (1990)—a National Legal Foundation case, which FFRF is trying to “spin”—and several federal circuit court of appeals decisions, none of which were authored by the Sixth Circuit that would bind a Tennessee federal district court. Santa Fe did not involve coaches or any staff praying with students (it involved student-led prayer over a loud speaker before football games), and Mergens permitted faculty to attend student-led religious meetings at school clubs in “custodial capacities.”

We believe a court would find more persuasive the guidance issued by the U.S. Department of Education, cited above.

The questions to consider are whether the coaches are “participating” in the football team prayers, whether they are doing so in their “official capacity” as a teacher/coach, or whether it is clear that they are attending the team prayer in their private capacity (we emphasize that the coaches can only attend, and not lead or participate actively in, the prayer, which, again, must be student-led). If the prayer is before the game (which appears to be the case from the Union Baptist Church photo), we think that a court would reject the claim that the coach was attending in a personal capacity, since the coach is at the game and would be leading the team in the school activity. If the prayer was after the game, the case for acceptability would be stronger. It would be even stronger, however, if the program stated, or the announcer said near the end of the game that, after the game, there would be on the field a short prayer led by students to which members of the general public are invited to attend. We very much doubt that this will satisfy FFRF, since it will claim that this is an endorsement of religion (which we believe is an improper test for the Court to follow, but some lower courts continue to give it credence; see, e.g., Kennedy v. Bremerton Sch. Dist., 20-35222 (9th Cir. 2021)). Given the Supreme Court’s focus on neutrality, we must show that MCPS does not favor religion to the exclusion of secularism, so we will need to show that MCPS allows similar opportunities for students, faculty, and the general public to meet after some event (school board meetings? school community events?). Although minimizing the impact of the prayer meetings, the most neutral formula would be to allow “meet and greet” sessions without prayer sometimes after football games. Furthermore, as noted above, the mere respectful bowing of coaches’ heads could be problematic in the current environment.

Mr. Wade Summers

V. Baccalaureate Services at MCPS Schools

Since the baccalaureates at Oakdale and Coalfield Schools were cancelled last year, both FFRF and we have little information on the baccalaureates. Knowing where they were to be held, who was organizing them, and what was the content of the services would help in our analysis. If, for instance, the baccalaureates were religious in nature (prayer, hymns, and sermon); organized by school personnel as part of their job on school time; and were held in a school without charge while other, non-religious groups are charged a fee for use of the facility, there very likely is a constitutional violation. If, however, the baccalaureates, even though religious in nature, are held in a church or at a school rented under the same conditions as secular groups, and if teachers and staff help organize and/or attend these services on their personal time, then a court would likely find no constitutional violation. I am not aware of a case in which the presence of the baccalaureate on the school's calendar was a significant issue. However, it could be removed out of an abundance of caution, since presumably school staff, as all local citizens would become aware of the event through other means.

Although it was decided in 1993 and was only litigated at the district court level, the opinion in the National Legal Foundation's victory in Shumway v. Albany County School Dist. No. One, 826 F. Supp. 1320 (D. Wyo. 1993), which I've attached, is still a leading case on baccalaureate events; and provides one way to proceed. All issues pertaining to advertising such events have been covered above.

VI. Display and Maintenance of Religious Signs

The last issue raised by FFRF is the presence of physical and virtual religious messages: a sign on a school wall and a post on Oakdale School's Facebook page.

While we do not know the context of the Facebook post, it seems to be in response to a tragedy in the Coalfield community. If this is the case, without more information, we can only speculate as to whether FFRF would prevail in a lawsuit should it want to sue over this tragedy.

As for the sign on the wall, if it is in a classroom or a hallway, this is likely problematic absent unusual circumstances. If it is in an office or other non-instructional space, it might or might not be problematic. If it is in an area that students and parents do not have access to—unlikely since FFRF obtained a photo of it—only a staff member would have standing to sue.

Perhaps a viable option here—if MCPS are not already doing this—is to replace this sign with our National Moto, “In God We Trust,” displayed in a “prominent location,” which Tennessee schools are required by law to do. Tenn. Code Ann. §49-6-2502.

At your and/or Mr. Treece’s convenience, let’s schedule a conference call to discuss this matter further. After this call, we suggest a letter be drafted by us or the school’s attorney.
