3rd Grade Wax Museum:

The fifth annual 3rd Grade Wax Museum is coming to Seward Elementary on Thursday, February 23rd from 5:00 PM - 5:30 PM (Mrs. Clouse and Mrs. Paseka) and 5:45 PM - 6:15 PM (Mrs. Smith and Miss Bohuslavsky). Third graders are busy researching and writing about a famous person from history. They will write a biography, memorize a speech, create a project board, and then dress up as their "person" for the Wax Museum. A huge thank you goes out to the 3rd grade team for making the Wax Museum a reality for our students. If you are free on the 23rd, we invite you to attend the Wax Museum and learn from our 3rd graders!

Strategic Plan Update:

Our School Improvement Team met in January to share progress made to each of our goals. This progress is highlighted below:

1. We will implement enrichment and intervention practices within our school day.
 - Seward Elementary uses a curriculum in reading, writing, and math that is differentiated to meet the needs of each of our students. We also provide small group instruction that is challenging and based on growth for each student. In addition to our curriculum, we utilize interventions for reading and math to ensure students are at or above grade level. We also recognize that many of our students are above grade level and need additional challenges. Our school has opportunities for enrichment through a reading and math program called My Path, in addition to programs used during small group instruction to improve skills in reading, writing, and math. At Seward Elementary, we believe in providing instruction that is challenging for individual students. We have also taken time this year to research STEAM (Science Technology, Engineering, Art, Math) learning opportunities for our students and are working to bring STEAM learning kits to SES as a way to engage students in this challenging, important content.

2. We will update existing grading and assessment guidelines, including report cards, to clearly define expectations to all stakeholders .

- The team has worked very hard this year to draft a report card to implement in the 23-24 school year. The report card has common grading symbols, language, and aligns to our priority learning goals we developed last year. We met with our School Improvement Team in January and the parents had great feedback for us. I also shared the report cards with several PTO members after our January meeting. Our next steps are to make minor revisions to the report cards at the February Professional Development Day, and then work with techs from Power School to get our report card updated for use next year.

3. We will research, design, and implement practices to enhance wellness of students and staff.

- Our wellness team has developed many exciting systems in our school to encourage students and staff to focus on overall wellness. Each morning, we begin our day with a “Movement in the Morning” physical activity that we do as a school during announcements. Each grade, preschool through 4th grade, uses a social emotional curriculum called Second Step. Second Step focuses on building social skills (how to be a good friend, how to handle conflict, etc.) and school skills (following directions, listening, asking for help, etc.). This team has worked hard to promote growth mindset/grit language with parents by creating a page in our monthly newsletter, Bluejay Buzz, to highlight this important topic and share how we use growth mindset with students in hopes that parents can use this language at home.

4. We will continue and expand on the communication practices and community partnerships to support our stakeholders.

- Our communication team has accomplished many exciting projects over the past three years. We have implemented a school-wide communication tool called Seesaw that is effective in communicating home to families. We implemented a process to communicate about big transitions at school. When report cards come home at the end of the school year, a “What to Expect” form also comes home, detailing what students and parents can expect in the next grade level. We have a school newsletter that goes home monthly with details about what is happening at school and what is happening soon. The communication team has also brought the Junior Achievement program to Seward Elementary. The goal of the Junior Achievement program is to build community connection between stakeholders in the Seward area and our school. Community members come to classrooms and present lessons on economics to our students. We love having visitors come in and share about our community and economy!

2023-2024 Kindergarten:

We are now in the process of registering students for kindergarten. As of today, we have 53 students on our list, which is similar to our numbers at this point the past few years. Kindergarten Round Up is on Friday, March 17th from 9:00 - 10:30 AM and the Kindergarten Parent Meeting is on Thursday, March 16th at 7:00 PM.

Thank you,

Jessica Dominy

Parents will also receive a letter from school acknowledging their recognition. Students recognized 2nd quarter:

Registration and Scheduling:

All pre-registration meetings have been completed for the 2023-2024-course registration process. Once requests have been entered our scheduling team will determine the number of sections based on student registration requests. We will then begin the process of scheduling building department recommendations to maximize the number of students requested courses we can actually accommodate in the actual 2023-2024 master schedule with our current staffing.

Parent/Teacher Conferences:

The third round of parent/teacher conferences was held, Thursday, February 2nd from 5:30-7:30 p.m. We had around 25% of the student’s parents/guardians attend conferences this term. This is about average but can vary with many factors including weather temperatures, which was very cold this evening.

Sophomore Parent Session:

A special program was held for the parents of sophomore students on February 2nd. The school counselors shared information regarding a wide array of post-secondary planning topics.

Karen Haase Presentation:

We were disappointed in the attendance for this event but we believe the information was very beneficial for those who attended. We tried to advertise this event through our alert system and social media. We also tried moving this to February instead of our last event that was in October of that year and we also tried to tie it to Parent/Teacher Conferences with the hope of gaining more attendance but we just were not successful in higher numbers. Thank you to Dr. Fields and to the board members that joined us. We appreciate the support!

Lunch Study Hall/After School Study Hall:

Lunch Study/After School study hall is still going well as we are past the halfway point of the term. On average we are starting the week with 40 students failing a class. On average, by the end of the week, we are down to nine students failing a class. The number of students starting the week in Lunch Study Hall has decreased each week.

Board Report

February 13, 2023

It is hard to believe that we are already in the middle of February. This is always a busy time of year because we are still working on a lot of things for the 2022-2023 school year but we are also preparing for the 2023-2024 school year.

I will be attending the NASES (Nebraska Association of Supervisors of Special Education) Legislative Conference in Lincoln on Feb. 9 and 10th. On the morning of February 9th, I have a meeting with Senator Hughes.

I will be presenting at the State Transition Conference on February 21st. This is an excellent opportunity for me to network with others in the state as we navigate the laws around transition planning and the IEP.

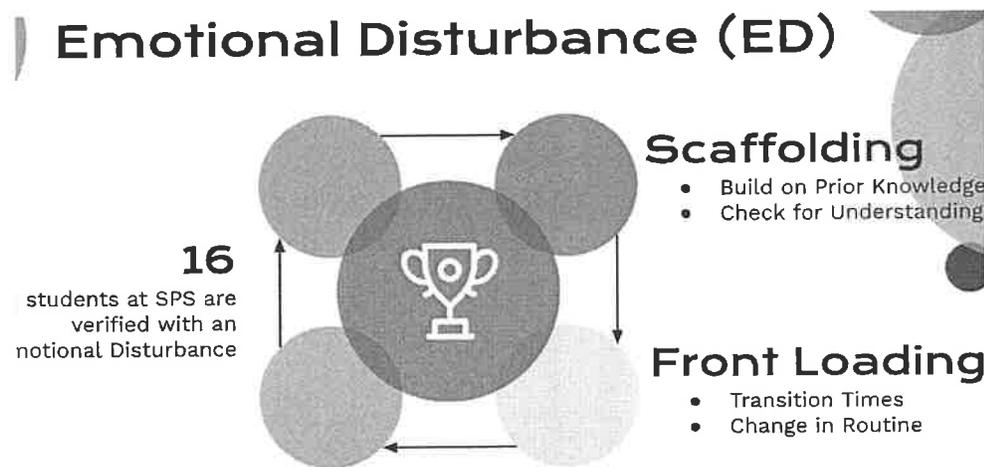

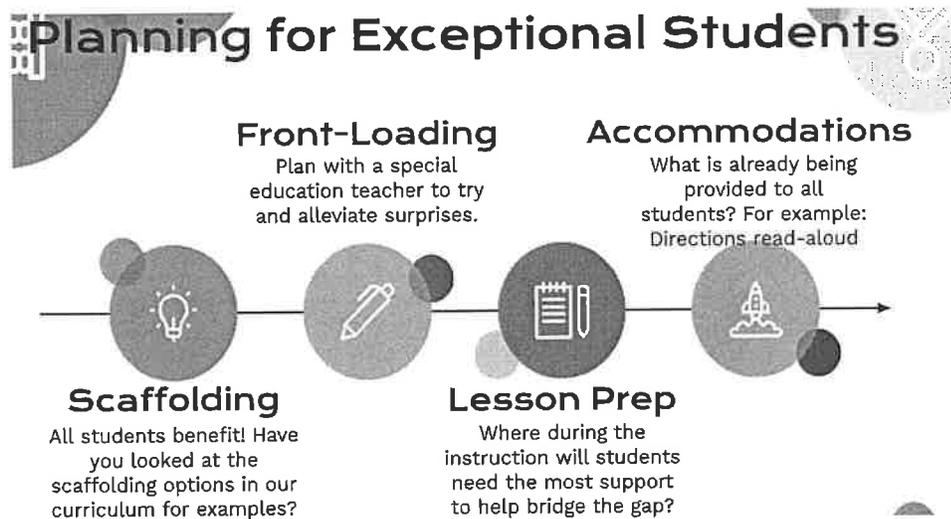

I will be attending the Mid-west Behavior Symposium in Kansas City on February 23 and 24th with Nate Stepp and Maddie Carlson. This is a fantastic conference and I am sure we will learn a lot that we can share with staff.

We attended our final session for Journey to Inclusion through NDE in January. I am appreciative of the time that the teachers on this team: Judy Rojewski, Beth Seegebarth, Kelley Kimbrough, Jackie Vanis, and Kari Samuels have spent stretching our brains as we think about inclusion and students on IEPs differently. We will continue to share what we learned with special education staff on our professional development days yet this year. And we will plan on how to continue this work into next year.

The testing window for the ELPA 21, the required English Language Proficiency Test for our English Language Learners opened on February 6th and closes on March 24th. Mrs. Jocelyn Gray will be administering the test to all of our ELL students. This also includes our 5 students that are on monitor status. We will also be scheduling a time in the near future to review our LEP.

February 27th is the 4th annual District-Wide Exceptional Student Day. Exceptional Student Day is a way for us to celebrate ALL of our students. Our district wants to bring awareness to ALL exceptional students who attend Seward Public Schools. Special t-shirts are available to purchase to wear on this day.

Beth Seegebarth, will be sending out slides again this year that highlight the 13 verification categories. This year we are also going to be sharing some information that we took from our professional development on Journey to Inclusion to include some strategies for teachers. Below are a couple of examples of the slides that will be shared.

As we start to prepare for preschool next year, we have invited children and their parents to attend an hour open house on March 17th so that they can see the classroom, met the teachers and we can meet the children. We currently have 52 students on the waiting list and potentially 18 of our current peers could return next year. Our maxim would be 40 peers (10 in each classroom). Preschool will continue to be a huge need for our community. We serve 42 students on IEPs ages 3 to 5. 32 of these students attend our preschool at the elementary school. The other 10 are served at community preschools.

Below are the current Special Program Enrollment numbers. Please note that enrollment changes were due to the group home closing, students graduating at mid-term, students moving in or out of the Seward District, and students no longer qualifying for special education services.

Again, thank you for all you do to support our community!

February 2023 Board Report for Curriculum and Staff Development

Board Members,

January went by in a hurry, but it was a month full of learning (Minus those snow days!) We wrapped up our winter testing this past month and have moved on to preparing for spring testing, staff development days, ELA adoption and many other aspects of teaching and learning.

Curriculum

At our March Board of Education meeting, we will have our recommended ELA materials available to you to review. Our plan is to also have a parent open house prior to the March meeting so that we are able to provide parent input to you at the meeting. The adoption cycle has gone well so far, we have been able to make a variety of trips to other schools to see our targeted instructional programs in action. We have had the pleasure of visiting Elkhorn, Waverly, Norris, York and we have visited with teachers from Fremont and St. Paul. We are extremely grateful for the generosity of time that these school districts have shared with us and we will plan on returning the favor down the road.

Instruction

At the end of March, the National Guard Museum has arranged an Abraham Lincoln impersonator to be at our schools. The National Guard has secured a grant to make this happen, there will be no charge to the district. The Abraham Lincoln impersonator is the same actor that was in Seward during the Fourth of July. Abraham will speak about his childhood and growing up with our K-4 students and speak more about the issues of his Presidency with students in grades 5-12. Mr. Meyer gave us total control of his schedule and after filling our schools, we invited our area parochial schools and Milford and Centennial to participate. At the time of this writing, his schedule is nearly full with these schools.

Staff Development

On our February Staff Development Day, we will have a variety of learning opportunities. Our ELA Curriculum cycle team will hear presentations from several publishers and will be able to ask follow-up questions regarding the programs we have observed. We will also have a large group doing CPR training- As a reminder, all paid coaches, early childhood staff, and the emergency response team are trained. We will also have time for action teams as well as select-a-session technology presentations. We will end the day with a district wellness committee meeting.

Assessment

Winter assessment has concluded and we have begun to arrange our Spring testing. This will include NSCAS growth for 3-8th grade students and the ACT test for our 3rd year cohort (Juniors) students.

Thank you for your support!

February Staff Development News

A newsletter for the Seward Staff by Dr. Dominy

A note from Matt

The picture in the background of this newsletter was the stock image that came up when I started my newsletter. I was just starting to go to the editing section where I could change the picture to something more "educational" when I paused and really looked at the picture... I think there is a message for all of us in this picture and I think if I asked each of you to reflect on it, we may get 222 different responses!

When I looked at the picture I saw all of the action of the city, the overwhelming landscape of buildings, windows, homes, cars, and lights- all of the action! The picture caused me to experience some anxiety and a feeling of being overwhelmed and then I looked at the mountain top and reflected on the peace and calm that mountain must bring.

In education today, we have many distractions in the news, in the legislature, on social media, etc. It can be overwhelming, it can certainly raise our anxiety and worry. In my opinion, we need to keep our eyes on what matters- our students. We need to ensure that they are ready for the next grade, course, level, and life- academically, socially, emotionally, and physically. We will do our best as leaders in our district to ensure that you can focus on quality teaching and quality relationships. We are thankful for each of you and all that you bring to our students.

Thank you

Matt

Cracks in the Foundation- Jon Gordon

Cracks in the Foundation

It rained a lot the other day and unfortunately we found a leak in our place. We never knew it was there because it never rained that much.

When the sun is shining and the weather is great you don't realize there are holes that make leaks possible. But when the storms come and the rain pours down, it reveals the cracks and holes you have.

You know where I'm going with this. When life is good and everything is going great, you don't think you have any issues.

But when adversity strikes and the storms of life come your way it reveals the cracks in your foundation you didn't know were there.

These moments can cause you to question who you are, what you are made of and whether you were as strong as you thought. Challenges often reveal the cracks in your identity, character and confidence. They expose the wounds you carry and holes in your soul.

During these times you can allow the revelation of these cracks to break you or cause you to seek ways to break through.

You can believe storms are happening to you or for you.

You can allow adversity to weaken you and crush your identity or find ways to, reinforce your core and become even stronger.

Finding holes may be difficult, inconvenient and cause a lot of temporary pain and frustration but they are also great opportunities to fix what is broken, heal the wounds, fill the holes and become whole.

-Jon

February Staff Development Day

We will certainly have a variety of offerings for our Feb. 20th staff development day. All ELA teachers K-12 will hear presentations from reading program vendors throughout the day. CPR training will be available for select staff who will be notified they need to attend the training. We will have three sessions scheduled in each building- Action plan time, Remote Learning work time, and Technology "Choose your session". Lastly, we will end our day with a District Wellness Committee Meeting.

February Board Report

- ★ At this point of the year students are very busy with multiple activities going on within several different clubs. The Leadership Team hopes that throughout the spring we can come up with fun activities to involve the student body.
- ★ The Leadership Team is working on partnering with a community business to host an event. We hope that through this we are able to support a local business and get students involved in the community!
- ★ The Leadership Team is also planning a bingo night for March. Students reached out and said that they wished there were more activities, so we thought that bingo night would be a great way to get students involved.

I have included a list of activities with representative input for each activity.

Haylie Sloup (Girl's Basketball): Our current record is 11-7 and that puts us #10 in Class B. We are heading into this month with good opportunities to get better. One thing we are focusing on this season is putting a full game of basketball together for 32 minutes and filling in leadership roles. Every game we highlight a player from both JV and Varsity an offensive and defensive award. By doing this we get credited for our good performances. We have 5 regular season games left until sub districts which are all winnable games for us. Our team has a great group of girls and we can't wait to see how the rest of this season goes!

Brenna McAdam (FBLA): FBLA is gearing up as State FBLA approaches. We have been working on gathering groups for projects as well as completing those. We've had multiple chapter meetings about State projects, as well as preparing for our annual FBLA week this month. Everybody is excited about the upcoming events, and we will have one of our largest groups attending State, with the limit being at 40. Overall, FBLA is eager to compete!

Rachel Kuss (FFA): FFA is starting off the month with National FFA week. During this week we will participate in dress up days, and other activities that our FFA Week Committee have yet to plan. We continue into the month by practicing for our upcoming CDE competitions. Students will practice skills such as welding, floriculture, horticulture, land evaluation, animal judging, and many others. We compete at districts at the end of the month and this competition will determine what other students will compete at State FFA in March. FFA officers hold a meeting every Tuesday morning to talk about upcoming activities and who will be present for each one. We also utilize committees that members can join to help vote on different subjects. An FFA week committee is meeting this week to create a list of dress up days and activities that we will bring to administration to get approved.

Maya Hubach (FCCLA): FCCLA started off February with District STAR competitions. We have been working on these for months, and so much hard work has paid off. Many of us are going to state in April! We are currently selling roses for Valentine's day, and the week of Valentine's day is FCCLA week! We have so much planned for members that week!

Emily Coffin (Girl's Bowling): The girls' bowling team has been one of the best things I've opened myself up to this year. We may be a small team, but our perseverance makes up for it and we strive to improve, which is why we encourage more people to go out bowling. Competitions are super fun. We travel to many different towns to their local bowling alleys and compete against other schools. Practices are right after school for three days a week. We celebrate the win from competitions dining out or throwing mini-parties at practice the next day! Our team is very open and friendly and learning is incredibly easy. I joined in 2022 and picked the sport right up and had a blast blowing down those pins. I don't see why you wouldn't want to join so don't wait, join Seward Bowling!!

Barret Nitz (E-Sports): This month in ESports we are wrapping up the Mario Kart season with one of our teams making it to state. They will be competing for first place on February 4th and we are hoping they bring back 1st. Right after that, we will be starting our spring season the following Tuesday with Super Smash Bros. and hopefully Overwatch 2 where we meet in Mr. Miller and Mr. Sistek's rooms to get ready for the season. This year's performance is amazing. Brian Roberts got 3rd place in Super Smash Bros. and our Rocket League team got 4th at state. We have really talented underclassmen and have been going to state each season with at least one team each game made up of entire freshmen and sophomores.

Laya Sugden (Dance Team): Dance team has been working hard at our morning and afternoon practices learning and perfecting dances to perform at the halftime of both boys and girls basketball games. We recently have started to prepare for the guy girl dance by teaching the girls and their partners a cute partner dance to perform at the basketball game on 2/3/23. We also have the kids camp dance coming up in February which is a great opportunity for the dancers to become involved with the elementary school students.

Esten Johnsen (Speech Team): This year's Speech Team has been on the upward trend! We have had two competitions so far, and have placed 5th in one! With all the different divisions of competitions, every member of this team works long and hard to meet their goals whether that is to make it to finals in one meet or even to place at conference and districts! Ms. Crouch and Ms. Olsen have been constantly supporting and motivating our competitors by offering practice times everyday after school to work on fluidity, memorization, gestures, expressions, and voice! We have a total of 5 more meets, including conference and districts. With this in mind, our Speech Team has their eyes on the prize and will work day and night to accomplish their individual or team desire this year!

Audrey Dobesh (Musical): Our show this year is Legally Blonde Jr. We have a great cast full of talented and hard working individuals. We are currently working on learning our scenes, music, and choreography. Everyone has a great attitude which makes rehearsals a lot more fun! Mr. Rickert, Mrs. vonKampen, and the entire cast and crew have been working so hard to make this show possible. We can't wait to perform for you in March!

Dear Mr. Gottschalk,

Please accept this letter as notice of my resignation from my position as the 7th grade math teacher at Seward Middle School, effective after the 2022-2023 school year.

Thank you for the guidance and support you provided me during my tenure. The lessons I learned and the experience I accumulated throughout the past ten years are invaluable to me, and I know it will continue to serve me moving forward in my career.

Please let me know how I can be of assistance during the transition. I have no doubt that my successor will continue the Seward tradition of leading every student every day to success. I wish you and the Bluejay family all the best.
