BUILDING
BETTER
TOGETHER

VOTE
NOVEMBER 3

What happens to LTFM if the referendum passes?

Does the referendum get added on top of our LTFM needs?

- No. The district would continue to have LTFM needs, but the amount would decrease.
- Today: approximately $140 million in identified long-term maintenance needs.
- Some of those projects would instead be completed as part of larger bond-funded renovations.
- Under current planning, passage of Questions 2 and 3 would reduce remaining identified LTFM needs to approximately $80–90 million.

75

What about claims of wasteful spending on buildings?

- FAIR Pilgrim Lane: The repeated claim of a $33 million renovation is false
 - 2016 financing associated with the building addition was approximately $1.94 million
- FAIR Crystal: The building has not closed to students. Highview and RVA students attend school there today
- The upstairs, where ESC staff will temporarily be located, was not recarpeted
- Facility work in spaces serving students is part of regular LTFM maintenance and stewardship

What happens to facilities we no longer need?

- Currently offline: Education Service Center, Robbinsdale Middle School, Noble and Sonnesyn Elementary Schools
- Additional facilities could become available as the long-term plan is implemented
- The district will evaluate properties for sale, reuse or other disposition
- Timing depends in part on the referendum and the district's resulting facility needs
- Potential sale proceeds are not assumed as a funding source for referendum construction
