Title of Agenda Item:

Consideration and possible action to name the {Georgetown High School Gym (Court)] the Coach "Rhonda Farney Court"

Background Information:

Rhonda has been the womens basketball coach at Georgetown HS for decades. She is the 3rd winningest high school basketball coach in the nation and has led our program to a state championship. She has had a tremendous impact on thousands of student athletes, their families and the greater Georgetown Community. She has also served as an English teacher, community development coordinator and in a variety of roles in GISD. She is a living embodiment of the mission, vision and values of this school district daily. She cares deeply about the success of every player in her program, from the freshman team to the varsity team. She cares about her athletes not just as players, but as individuals. She can be seen attending their baptisms at church, their graduations, their weddings, etc. She is worthy of this honor and we are proud to make this recommendation.
