Robert's Rules of Order Summary Sheet

The Order of Business

1. Approval of minutes, membership reports, and financial reports
 - a. You say: "You have received the minutes of the last meeting/month membership report/month financial report. Are there any corrections to the minutes/reports? [Pause]If there is no objection, the minutes are approved as printed and distributed to the members."
2. Reports of directors, officers, boards and standing committees. If the reports are printed and distributed before the meeting the chair only needs to ask the member presenting their report "Do you have any additions to the report as printed and distributed to the members? If no, Thank you." After verbal reports are given the chair simply says "thank you".
3. Discussion Items
4. Action Items

Main Motions

"The motion" is sometimes referred to as "the question". Both mean basically the same thing.

The motion process involves the following six steps:

1. A member makes a motion.
 - a. Make sure that the motion states exactly what you want the organization to believe or do.
 - b. You Say: I move that..
 - c. Examples of two different kinds of motions:
 - i. "I move that we form a committee to investigate the purchase of a computer."
 1. This motion only allows the committee to investigate the purchase, not to make the purchase.
 - ii. "I move that we form a committee to purchase a computer."
 1. This motion authorizes the committee to purchase the computer.
2. Another member seconds the motion.
3. The chair states the motion, formally placing it before the assembly.
4. The members debate the motion.
 - a. At this point the motion is considered pending. While a motion is pending, members can amend it, postpone it, put it aside, send it to a committee, and so on. If the discussion gets off track, you can ask: "Is there any further discussion on the motion to...".
5. The chair puts the question/motion to a vote.
 - a. To begin, the chair should restate the motion to remind members of the exact issue they will be voting on. You say: "We will now vote on the motion to...".
 - b. The chair should tell members to express their voice vote. You say: "All those in favor say 'Aye'". All opposed say 'No'".
6. The chair announces the results of the vote. This announcement should include the following four elements:
 - a. Which side has the vote: "The affirmative has it" or "The negative has it".
 - b. Whether the motion passed or failed: "The motion is adopted" or "The motion is lost."
 - c. Effect of the vote: "And we will be purchasing a computer", "Our bylaws have been amended" or "Our bylaws have not been amended and will remain as they currently read".
 - d. The next step: "The next business in order will be the report of the finance committee"
 - i. The announcement will sound like: The affirmative has it. The motion to...is adopted and we will be....

What Can Tier 2 & 3 Look Like: Referral Scenario

So what happens if two students are in a verbal fight at recess?

Impromptu Conferencing with affective language and questioning

- Non-judgemental observation
- Use “I-feel” statements
- Re-state expectations
- What happened, who was affected, what do you take responsibility for, how can we make things right, what can I do to help, what could you/we do?

Maybe the issue escalates and the behavior is repetitive:

- Deans gather more information:
 - Interviews, camera footage
 - Students, staff, others impacted
- Internal Referrals:
 - Follow process for Office Discipline Referral
 - CST (Secondary) or Behavior Team Referral (Elementary); Safety Team (if needed)

At the state level, Ms. Taylor informed the Board of House Bill 26-1050, Optional Individualized Readiness Plans for Schools, which allows local education providers to make individualized readiness plans optional for students who meet minimum requirements.

Ms. Taylor also noted the upcoming restructuring of early learning councils and reported on the formalization of House Bill 26-1001, Housing Developments on Qualifying Properties, which supports residential development on qualifying properties and allows schools to provide teacher housing.

Additionally, Ms. Taylor reported discussion regarding Colorado's vehicle ownership tax (Specific Ownership Tax), which is distributed to school districts as part of the local share of school finance funding and contributes to district operating revenues.

7.F. Board Report BOCES

Mrs. Rachel McWhirter presented the BOCES report.

Mrs. McWhirter reported that the Montezuma-Cortez School District's request to the Colorado Department of Education (CDE) to apply for reorganization was denied and has since been appealed. The appeal will be reviewed by Commissioner Cordova, who indicated that a decision is expected early next week.

Mrs. McWhirter reported that the BOCES Board will include four returning members and four new members, noting that she will continue serving as a board member. She noted that BOCES is undergoing some reorganization, particularly within the finance department.

Mrs. McWhirter reported that BOCES anticipates completing its audit next month and is reviewing the restructuring of the E-School billing system to create a more streamlined process.

She also reported that the Board is reviewing financial templates to better align BOCES financial reporting with school district financial formats, which is expected to support the audit process.

7.G. Strategic Plan Objective Report

No report this month. There will be a presentation for the February board meeting.

7.H. Business Manager Report

Mrs. Chrissie Miller presented a balanced budget to the Board. She explained that the district develops its annual budget in June using projected figures based on the best information available at that time, and that January is used to update and reconcile the budget to reflect actual expenditures for the current fiscal year for Board approval.

Mrs. Miller reported that the district's revenue for the current year is budgeted based on 473.1 students, using the three-year average permitted by the Colorado Department of Education. She noted that the current budget reflects approximately $300,000 in deficit spending due to circumstances largely beyond the district's control.

Mrs. Miller outlined contributing factors to the deficit, including unexpected technology expenses, the need to replace a Suburban following the total loss of a Traverse, completion of prior Frank Ditch projects, and repayment obligations related to a four-year audit cycle covering 2017-2022.

Mrs. Miller noted that actual expenditures may be lower by the time the budget is finalized in June, as several budgeted line items may not be fully spent but are included to ensure district needs are met. She reported that work will continue over the coming months on projections for the 2026-27 budget year.

Mrs. Miller informed the Board that two resolutions were presented for consideration: approval of the use of the beginning fund balance and appropriation of current expenditures. Quarterly financial reports were included in the Board packet.

Mrs. Hazleton recognized Mrs. Miller for the extensive work involved in developing and balancing the district budget.

7.I. Superintendent Report

Mrs. Hazleton presents the superintendent's report.

Healthy Community

Mrs. Hazleton reported that Friday, January 23, was a district professional development day. The district welcomed Zac Hess, Director of Reuniting Pathways, who worked with staff on developing restorative, positive classroom practices and strategies for integrating these practices into daily and weekly routines. Restorative practices support students in problem-solving, self-advocacy, and repairing harm when it occurs.

Mrs. Hazleton also reported that staff participated in joint wellness activities to begin the professional development day, including a wellness walk and physical games. She noted that the elementary physical education program has been developing a collaborative student wellness initiative, including class lap challenges, and designated February 2nd through 5th as Wellness Week.

The ESS Department participated in an adaptive sports program at Purgatory in partnership with the Durango Adaptive Sports Association.

Mrs. Hazleton noted that athletic teams have been traveling frequently this month and expressed appreciation to Destri and Louis Horton for coordinating these events.

Engaging Learning

Mrs. Hazleton reported that leadership walks are occurring across campus, with Adyan and Audrey observing classrooms to identify coaching needs and support alignment with curriculum goals.

Mrs. Hazleton highlighted recent science fair events and recognized Brady Archer for his work coordinating the event. She noted that a large number of students will advance to the regional science fair.

Mrs. Hazleton reported that mid-year data cycles were reviewed during the professional development day. Data was analyzed with specific teachers to identify successes and gaps, allowing for targeted supports to be implemented for students.

Cohesive Systems

Mrs. Hazleton reported that the Mill Levy Committee continues to examine regional comparisons, market averages, and compensation models. She recognized Alice Miller and Chrissie Miller for their work in preparing data for committee review. The committee is reviewing multiple models to determine alignment with market averages while considering ballot language. A summary of the committee's work is available on the district website.

Mrs. Hazleton reported that the evaluation process and mid-year conferences are underway and that staff have been informed of evaluation procedures. Certified staff will complete evaluations through RANDA, the Colorado Department of Education's evaluation system.

Mrs. Hazleton reported that the calendar committee is underway and developing two draft calendars to be shared in an upcoming Mancos Matters publication. Alice and Monica are serving as committee leads and are coordinating with neighboring districts, Fort Lewis College, and Pueblo Community College to improve community alignment. The draft calendars will be presented at the February work session.

Mrs. Hazleton expressed appreciation to Kira and Craig for assisting with the distribution of the staff holiday bonus in December.
