Mr. McCormick further reported that Impact Aid currently has only three employees in the office due to layoffs in Washington, D.C., and as a result, the district has not yet received an early payment.

He noted that Title I funding has been reduced, which will impact the district's federal program allocations.

Additionally, the district is actively pursuing grant opportunities, including a U.S. Tennis Association Grant to assist with tennis court renovations and a TSET Grant to support the development of pickleball courts.
