Literacy Laws: Preparing for What's Ahead

2 Ethics Credits

Major changes to the Strong Readers Act will bring new expectations for students, educators, families and school districts. We'll look at what's changing, the implementation timeline and what districts can expect, with a focus on the school board's role in supporting strong literacy instruction and student success. We'll also talk about how these changes fit into the bigger picture of student literacy — including how to address negative narratives about student performance and help your community better understand both the challenges students face and the meaningful progress they are making.

To whom it may concern,

Harrah FFA is seeking permission to travel out of state to attend the National FFA Convention & Expo held in Indianapolis, IN, October 20-24, 2026. Members attending the convention will be the Harrah FFA officer team. Chapter President, Jolie Marshall, was selected by a national panel to compete in the National Convention Talent Competition, and the other six members would like to support her in this incredible accomplishment. Additionally, the attendees would be participating in workshops, touring businesses within the agricultural industry, and experiencing the convention as a whole.

One Harrah FFA Advisor, Brianna Roat, as well as one parent chaperone, Megan Marshall, will supervise the seven Harrah FFA members while attending the convention. Housing, convention registration, and any additional activities will be funded through the Harrah FFA activity account.

Harrah FFA is also requesting use of one Harrah Public Schools Expedition to transport students and luggage to and from the convention. Megan Marshall and Jolie Marshall will be traveling up one day earlier than the others in their personal vehicle, as Jolie has a mandatory talent competition meeting.

Respectfully,

Brianna Roat
