3.A. Student Recognition

Discussion: The Student of the Month for the lower elementary is pre-k student, Hunter Anderson. Hunter was introduced by Mrs. Shields who said that he is good at shapes and likes to play with his brother. In the future, he wants to fix cars and trucks and wants to learn how to do 5 push-ups in a row. His favorite meal is steak with orange juice to drink. His teachers say that he is kind and is a great friend. Brycen Givens is the student of the month for the Upper Elementary and was introduced by Mr. Miller. Brycen likes PE, The Dukes of Hazzard and fishing. In the future, he wants to be a race car driver. His teachers say he is a great student that leads by example. Mr. Carmin introduced Karstyn Farrar as the student of the month for the Junior High. Karstyn is in 8th grade and likes reading and music. She is involved in track, leadership and Student Council. She is also an office aide and is one of the football managers. Her favorite food is Quesadillas and french fries and her favorite subject is history. Her teachers had so many great things to say about her. She is an impressive student that works hard and functions at a high level but can still have fun and be a silly kid. Lily Matthiesen was introduced by Mr. Hight as the student of the month for the High School. Lily is involved in the band, yearbook, student council and National Honor Society. Her favorite subject is English and she loves to read. In the future, she wants to go to OSU and major in accounting and work at FBT and the farm. Lily's teachers say she is a great leader and talented musician who is always organized and has a smile on her face.
