6.A. Principal Reports

Trey Allen read Elementary Principal report, The Word of the Month for February was Kindness. Teachers and students from Circle the State with Song Ladies, FCCLA, STUCO and 1st Grade did an amazing job of giving ideas of showing kindness through words, actions and gifts. In February, 48 elementary students earned a spot in the RAIL Club. The third nine week's A.R. Incentive trip was last week. First through sixth grade students that met their reading goal went to the Thunder Blue game in OKC and had a unique game experience of NBA basketball against the South Bay Lakers and an educational focus on STEM curriculum, too. Big thanks to our extra help, we have the best parents and grandparents! Read Across America Week will be celebrated this week. Mrs. Smith has planned many fun literacy activities for the week with the theme of Reading in the Big City that includes visiting different "tourist attractions" in our school halls and fun dress up days. JH softball kicked off at home playing Beaver and JH baseball had their season opener against Waukomis. Track has been working hard to get ready for their first track meet March 25 at Covington-Douglas. Some elementary students have shown at the local, county and district livestock shows this past month and have done extremely well! With OYE coming up, I'm excited to see what more these students and their animals will accomplish. Parent/Teacher Conferences are today and tomorrow from 4 to 7 pm. Our teachers and students have worked extremely hard this year and student progress reflects that. Our Kindergarten class was selected to attend Read Across Oklahoma 2026 at the OKC Zoo on March 26. Mrs. Webb and her students will listen to the author, Bart Taylor, eat a picnic lunch and explore the zoo! What an exciting opportunity for our young students. February Students of the Week were: Sutton Gum, Kaiser White, Jaylee Baggs, Levi Scott, Caroline Smith, Brooks Westfahl, Laramie Tolson and Elliott Ross. Next week is Spring Break and many are looking forward to a break before the last nine weeks!

Trey Allen, JH/HS Principal reported that Parent-Teacher Conferences will be held March 9th and 10th from 4:00 to 7:00 PM in the multipurpose building. We look forward to visiting with parents and discussing student progress. Our junior high and high school softball and baseball seasons are now underway, and there will be several opportunities throughout the month for our community to come out and support our student athletes. The Oklahoma Youth Expo will take place March 10th through the 20th. We want to wish the best of luck to all of our exhibitors representing our school. Our band students will compete in the Regional Band Contest on March 11th. Spring Break will be March 16th through the 20th. Our FFA members will attend the NWOSU CDE and Speech Contest on March 24th, followed by the Redlands FFA CDE Contest on March 31st. FCCLA students will compete in the State STAR Events in Stillwater on March 25th and 26th. On March 25th, Journey of Hope will be visiting with our 7th through 12th grade students to speak about the Oklahoma City bombing. Their presentation is based on the foundation of Better Conversations, which helps students come together to respectfully discuss challenging topics. Students will learn to communicate using grounding virtues such as patience, humility, and adventurous civility. Our high school track team will compete at Covington-Douglas on March 27th. Our junior class will be taking the ACT on Monday, March 30th. We would also like to recognize several recent accomplishments by our students. At the February 4th Northwest District Livestock Judging Contest, Sage Baird placed High Individual in the Junior FFA division, and our Junior FFA team earned 2nd place overall. At the District Livestock Show in Woodward, our students had outstanding results: Grand Champion Heifer - Rholton Bouziden, Reserve Grand Champion Heifer - Rhiata Bouziden, Grand Champion Doe Goat - Addley Hanson, Reserve Grand Champion Ewe - Stetson Nix, several students also qualified for the Sale of Champions: Lamb: Stetson Nix, Paisley Reed, Kaiser White, Goat: Addley Hanson, Charles Hanson, Cattle: Rholton Bouziden, Rhiata Bouziden. We are proud of the many students representing our school in these activities and appreciate the support of our staff, parents, and community. Thank you.

6.B. Superintendent Report

Waynoka Public Schools Superintendent Scott Cline reported that the district's finances remain stable as the Board of Education reviewed the February financial report. Cline noted that expenditures for the month of February were lower, while spending for the year overall remains essentially flat compared to previous totals. When reviewing revenue, Cline explained that current numbers appear lower than last year, but the comparison is affected by a one-time financial settlement received during the previous fiscal year. "If you look at our revenue and compare it to last year, you're going to see that we're down," Cline said. "But last year included the settlement. If you compare it to the year before that, you can see we're right on track with where we need to be for collections." Because of that trend, Cline said the district is in a strong position in its General Fund. The district's Building Fund showed no expenditures during February, which helped reduce overall spending in that category. Cline said many building fund expenses are tied to bond projects, and fewer bond-related costs were required this year. In the Child Nutrition Fund, expenditures have increased while revenue has decreased. Cline explained the shift is largely due to federal programs that currently allow students to eat meals at school at no cost. "We're not collecting money because everyone's eating free," Cline said. "Right now we're sitting at about a $58,000 net loss in child nutrition." The district's daycare program also showed both reduced expenditures and reduced revenue due to a smaller number of children enrolled. However, Cline reported the program has improved financially compared to the previous year. "We've closed the gap on how much we're losing," he said. "Right now we're sitting at about a $22,000 loss, which is a lot better than the previous year." Cline also clarified information from the district's recent audit regarding bond repayment schedules. He explained that the 2018 bond issue is scheduled to be fully paid off in 2028. A separate 2024 series bond included a $260,000 sale two years ago that will be paid off in 2026. However, that bond program operates as a continuing series. "We'll sell another bond next year, and that will continue until about 2034," Cline explained. "So while part of it pays off in 2026, the full series won't likely be completed until around 2034." He added that the repayment timeline depends largely on local ad valorem tax collections, as the district is working to keep the millage rate flat rather than raising or lowering property taxes. "We're trying to keep our millage rate steady," Cline said. "Once the 2018 bond is paid off in 2028, a larger amount of money will start going toward the other bond, which will help pay it down faster." Overall, Cline told board members the district's finances remain steady and on track as the school year continues.

(b) Covenant. Recipient hereby agrees that during the Term and at all times thereafter it shall not use, commercialize, or disclose such Confidential & Proprietary Information of the Discloser to any person or entity, except to its own employees and agents having a "need to know" (and who themselves are bound by similar nondisclosure restrictions), and to such other recipients as the Discloser may approve in writing; provided that all such recipients shall have first executed a confidentiality agreement in a form acceptable to Discloser. 11. Notices. Notices sent to either Party shall be effective when delivered in person or transmitted electronically, one (1) day after being sent by overnight courier, two (2) days after being sent by first class mail postage prepaid to a physical address provided by the Customer, or five (5) days after being sent by email from SylogistEd, Inc. to the address in the Customer account. - 12. Survival. Termination shall have no effect on the Parties' rights or obligations under Section 8 ("Privacy and Personal Information"); Section 10 ("Confidential & Proprietary Information"), Section 13 ("Independent Contractor Status"), any payment obligations or any provision which by its nature should survive.

- 13. Independent Contractor Status. Each Party and its employees and agents are independent contractors in relation to the other Party with respect to all matters arising under this Agreement. Nothing herein shall be deemed to establish a partnership, joint venture, association, or employment relationship between the Parties. Each Party shall remain responsible and shall, as allowed by Oklahoma constitution or law, indemnify and hold harmless the other Party, for the withholding and payment of all federal, state and local personal income, wage, earnings, occupation, social security, worker's compensation, unemployment, sickness and disability insurance taxes, payroll levies, or employee benefit requirements now existing or hereafter enacted and attributable to themselves and their respective people.
- 14. Miscellaneous. This document and the documents incorporated herein constitute the entire agreement between the Parties with respect to the subject matter hereof and supersede all other communications, whether written or oral. SylogistEd, Inc. reserves all rights not specifically granted herein. Neither Party shall be liable for delays caused by events beyond its reasonable control, except non-payment of amounts due hereunder shall not be excused by this provision. Any provision hereof found by a tribunal of competent jurisdiction to be illegal or unenforceable shall be automatically conformed to the minimum requirements of law and all other provisions shall remain in full force and effect. Waiver of any provision hereof in one instance shall not preclude enforcement thereof on future occasions.

- 12. Survival. Termination shall have no effect on the Parties' rights or obligations under Section 8 ("Privacy and Personal Information"); Section 10 ("Confidential & Proprietary Information"), Section 13 ("Independent Contractor Status"), any payment obligations or any provision which by its nature should survive.
- 13. Independent Contractor Status. Each Party and its employees and agents are independent contractors in relation to the other Party with respect to all matters arising under this Agreement. Nothing herein shall be deemed to establish a partnership, joint venture, association, or employment relationship between the Parties. Each Party shall remain responsible and shall, as allowed by Oklahoma constitution or law, indemnify and hold harmless the other Party, for the withholding and payment of all federal, state and local personal income, wage, earnings, occupation, social security, worker's compensation, unemployment, sickness and disability insurance taxes, payroll levies, or employee benefit requirements now existing or hereafter enacted and attributable to themselves and their respective people.
- 14. Miscellaneous. This document and the documents incorporated herein constitute the entire agreement between the Parties with respect to the subject matter hereof and supersede all other communications, whether written or oral. SylogistEd, Inc. reserves all rights not specifically granted herein. Neither Party shall be liable for delays caused by events beyond its reasonable control, except non-payment of amounts due hereunder shall not be excused by this provision. Any provision hereof found by a tribunal of competent jurisdiction to be illegal or unenforceable shall be automatically conformed to the minimum requirements of law and all other provisions shall remain in full force and effect. Waiver of any provision hereof in one instance shall not preclude enforcement thereof on future occasions.
